Aspects of Islamic Civilization A. J. Arberry,1971 The Arts of Islamic Civilization Ismail Raji al-Faruqi,2013-01-01
In dealing with any aspect of Islamic civilization its final raison d'etre and creative base must be seen as resting on the Qur'an. Islamic culture is in fact a Qur'anic culture for its definitions its structures its goals and its methods for execution of those goals are all derived from that series of revelations from God to the Prophet Muhammad. Without that revelation the culture could not have been generated without that revelation there could have been neither an Islamic religion an Islamic state an Islamic philosophy an Islamic law an Islamic society nor an Islamic political or economic organization. Just as surely as these aspects of Islamic culture may be rightly seen as Qur'anic in basis and motivation in implementation and goal the arts of Islamic civilization should also be viewed as aesthetic expressions of similar derivation and realization. Yes the Islamic arts are indeed Qur'anic arts. How then are the Islamic arts to be seen as Qur'anic expressions in color in line in movement in shape and in sound. This is the subject of this work The Islamic Civilization Mustafa Siba'i,2002 For a thousand years the Islamic civilisation was the central light the rays illuminated the entire world. It was the mother of European culture for men reared in this civilisation were the masters in the Middle Ages at whose feet the Spaniards the French the English the Italians and the Germans sat to learn philosophy mathematics astronomy chemistry physics medicine and industrial techniques.
