Glasco, 2026-02-10 Playwright August Wilson is best known for his American Century Cycle a sequence of ten plays including the Pulitzer Prize winning Fences and The Piano Lesson that chronicle the lives of Black Americans in each decade of the twentieth century But behind the celebrated plays stands a complex man shaped by his hometown's vibrant Black culture In August Wilson's American Century Life as Art Laurence A Glasco one of the foremost historians of Black life in Pittsburgh draws on Wilson's early poetry archival material and original interviews with family members neighbors and friends to show how the city and its residents shaped the playwright and his work Wilson's overlapping identities as an outsider warrior race man and poet helped him persevere in the face of setbacks weave real life observations with his poetry to craft memorable dialogue and compelling characters and portray the realities of race in America in ways that have resonated with theatergoers and readers ever since Glasco uncovers the story of how the people and places of Pittsburgh remained with Wilson after he left his hometown shining through in a body of work that brought the struggles and triumphs of the Black experience to a wide audience and changed American theater for the better August Wilson Alan Nadel, 2010-05-16 Contributors to this collection of 15 essays are academics in English theater and African American studies They focus on the second half of Wilson's century cycle of plays examining each play within the larger context of the cycle and highlighting themes within and across particular plays Some topics discussed include business in the street in Jitney and Gem of the Ocean contesting black male responsibilities in Jitney

the holistic blues of Seven Guitars violence as history lesson in Seven Guitars and King Hedley II and ritual death and Wilson's female Christ The book offers an index of plays critics and theorists but not a subject index Nadel is chair of American literature and culture at the University of Kentucky

The Theatre of August Wilson Alan Nadel, 2018-05-17
The first comprehensive study of August Wilson's drama introduces the major themes and motifs that unite Wilson's ten play cycle about African American life in each decade of the twentieth century Framed by Wilson's life experiences and informed by his extensive interviews this book provides fresh coherent detailed readings of each play well situated in the extant scholarship It also provides an overview of the cycle as a whole demonstrating how it comprises a compelling interrogation of American culture and historiography Keenly aware of the musical paradigms informing Wilson's dramatic technique Nadel shows how jazz and particularly the blues provide the structural mechanisms that allow Wilson to examine alternative notions of time property and law Wilson's improvisational logics become crucial to expressing his notions of black identity and resituating the relationship of literal to figurative in the African American community The final two chapters include contributions by scholars Harry J Elam Jr and Donald E Pease

August Wilson Yvonne Shafer, 1998-01-26 Provides information on the work of a black American playwright best known for his play Ma Rainey's Black Bottom Offers plot summaries and critical overviews of six plays written between 1984 and 1996 and contains a chronology an overview of his life and career and a list of productions and credits Also includes an annotated bibliography of Wilson's dramatic publications as well as articles and interviews about him and an annotated secondary bibliography Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

The Dramatic Vision of August Wilson Sandra Garrett Shannon, 1995 In The Dramatic Vision of August Wilson Sandra Shannon follows the playwright's path through each decade From the outset she considers how he uses poetry the blues Romare Bearden's art and other cultural artifacts to lead him to imagined sites of pain and resignation healing and renewal in the collective memory of black America It is in these places of defeat and victory Shannon demonstrates that Wilson creates drama as he excavates examines and reclaims the past Although Wilson diverts attention away from factual details and focuses on the human costs of family dislocation chronic unemployment or cultural alienation Shannon illustrates how fully the plays are grounded in credible historical contexts from slavery and Emancipation to the aftermath of World War II the 1960s and the Vietnam War Moreover she identifies and analyzes the themes that recur in some plays and branch off in new directions in others including the dislocations that attended black migration to the North and communication gaps between black men and women As she examines each of the plays in Wilson's dramatic history of the African American experience Shannon conveys the broad range of his dramatic vision
