Volume one contains a general description of Burma, a history of Britain's acquisition of the colony and chapters on the people, government, general administration, civil service, police administration, judicial administration, prison administration and educational system. Volume two is devoted to economic and administrative affairs including financial administration, the land revenue system, public works, trade and shipping and the administration of forests, towns, villages and harbors. Twenty-one appendices provide additional detail including economic and demographic statistics, the texts of treaties, agreements and reports, a bibliography and a glossary of Indian and Burmese words. At the end of volume one is a large foldout map of Burma by Edinburgh mapmakers John Bartholomew Co.
