A Layman's Introduction to Religious Existentialism Eugene B. Borowitz, 1965 A LAYMAN S INTRODUCTION TO RELIGIOUS EXISTENTIALISM presents the philosophy of one of the most influential movements of thought in the twentieth century In language that is exceptional for its clarity it explains and assesses the important Jewish Catholic and Protestant contributors to modern theology Soren Kierkegaard Karl Barth Franz Rosenzweig Jacques Maritain Nicholas Berdyaev Gabriel Marcel Reinhold Niebuhr Rudolf Bultmann Martin Buber and Paul Tillich Publisher Schopenhauer on Self, World and Morality Arati Barua, 2018-01-05 This volume is a unique collection of philosophical essays on various aspects of Schopenhauer s understanding of the nature and character of the world through the classical philosophies of the Vedanta and Buddhism and classical and modern thinkers like Bhart hari Tagore and

Wittgenstein It includes reflective insights about Schopenhauer and the metaphysics of the world the self and morality from scholars who have pioneered the philosophical study of the relation between Schopenhauer and Indian schools of thoughts and intellectual history This insightful volume is a good academic resource for further research in comparative philosophy of Schopenhauer and the Indian tradition S.L. Frank Philip Boobbyer,1995 There are many reasons for writing a biography of Semyon Frank Quite apart from his philosophy he lived a remarkable life Born in Moscow in 1877 he was exiled from Soviet Russia in 1922 and died in London in 1950 The son of a Jewish doctor he became a revolutionary Social Democrat in his teens and finished his life as a Neoplatonist Christian One of the Russian revisionist Marxists he was then involved in the Kadet Party during the 1905 revolution before breaking with active political activity and turning to philosophy He lived in Petrograd through the First World War until September 1917 after which he went to Saratov where he experienced the chaos of the Russian Civil War Living in Germany after his exile he witnessed the rise of Hitler in Berlin left for France in a hurry in 1937 and spent part of the war hiding from the Gestapo in the Grenoble mountains It was a life that encompassed a lot of history Yet along with this Frank was arguably Russia s greatest twentieth century philosopher Indeed V V Zen kovskii the historian of Russian philosophy considered Frank in strength of philosophic vision the most outstanding among Russian philosophers generally not merely among those who share his ideas For its lucidity conciseness systematic character and unity Zen kovskii considered Frank s system the highest achievement of Russian philosophy Doubtless Zen kovskii s assessment is disputable but his remarks emphasize Frank s stature in the Russian tradition In the style of German idealism Frank constructed a comprehensive philosophical system which he believed offered a coherent alternative to materialism He was deeply worried by the implications of epistemological relativism and constructed a system of metaphysics designed to link epistemology and ontology to bridge the gulf between thought and being In addition he attempted to express the idea of a personal God in philosophical language His system also embraced social philosophy anthropology and ethics from the Introduction by the author Religious and Theological Abstracts ,1999 Pedagogy of Vulnerability Edward J. Brantmeier, Maria K. McKenna,2020-03-03 This book explores the pedagogy of vulnerability in education advocating for holistic engaged inquiry It addresses the challenges of creating spaces for risk taking and critical engagement offering reflections case studies and research to inspire a more peaceful and just world through vulnerable teaching practices The Philosopher's Index ,1995 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts Ferdinand Tönnies, a New Evaluation Cahnman,2023-07-31 Nijinsky's Feeling Mind Nicole Svobodny,2023-07-03 Nijinsky s Feeling Mind The Dancer Writes The Writer Dances is the first in depth literary study of Vaslav Nijinsky s life writing Through close textual analysis combined with intellectual biography and literary theory Nicole Svobodny puts the spotlight on Nijinsky as reader She elucidates Nijinsky s riffs on Tolstoy Dostoevsky and Nietzsche equating these intertextual connections to marking a dance whereby the dancer uses a reduction strategy situated between thinking and doing By exploring the intersections of bodily movement with verbal language this book addresses broader questions of how we sense and make sense of our worlds Drawing on archival research along with studies in psychology and philosophy Svobodny emphasizes the modernist contexts from which the dancer writer emerged at the end of World War I Nijinsky began his life writing a book he titled Feeling the day after the Paris Peace Conference opened and the same day he performed his last dance Nijinsky's Feeling Mind begins with the dancer on stage and concludes as he invites readers into his private room Illuminating the structure plot medium and mode of Feeling this study calls on readers to grapple with a paradox the more the dancer insists on his writing as a live performance the more he points to the material object that entombs it Hermann Cohen's Kantian Philosophy of Religion Ketil Bonaunet, 2004 This study examines the influence of Kant on Hermann Cohen's philosophy of religion A basic tenet in Kantian philosophy of religion is that morality leads ineluctably to religion But how does morality lead to religion While Cohen rejected Kant's doctrine of the postulates of the existence of God and the immortality of the soul as it is formulated in Kritik der praktischen Vernunft he searched for alternative ways to found a religion of reason in ethics This book concentrates on two routes from ethics to religion that are central to Cohen's philosophy of religion in his two last works Der Begriff der Religion im System der Philosophie 1915 and Religion der Vernunft aus den Quellen des Judentums posthumous 1919 One route takes compassion towards the concrete Other which is complementary to an ethics of universal respect as its point of departure and argues that an attitude of compassion and recognition of the Other as a genuine individual presupposes a distinctive religious consciousness The other route is inspired by Kant's wrestling with the problem of removal of moral guilt in Religion innerhalb der Grenzen der blossen Vernunft and centres around the questions of guilt and liberation from guilt Cohen's ideas and their continued relevance are explored in this book in light of some major concerns of twentieth century and contemporary philosophy of religion The Unknowable Semen Li[u]dvigovich Frank, 1983

Laibelman, 2000-10-25 The Other Perennial Philosophy A Metaphysical Dialectic seeks to synthesize the many fields within science philosophy and religion to achieve the most comprehensive picture ever constructed to incorporate universally held beliefs about God man and the universe This book attempts to accomplish several interrelated purposes to describe the Perennial Philosophy in its depth to analyze the critical elements contained within such a body of thought to bring to light the vast literature of views which are oppositional at least on some level to those contained in the Perennial Philosophy to synthesize these seemingly discordant thoughts into a new vision of the nature of reality to dissect the implications of this new model and lastly and perhaps most importantly to demonstrate that intellect has no innate constraints This book rigorously explores the connections to be made by weaving together the threads of philosophy religious theology mysticism mythology mathematics physics and biochemistry In this study is both a critique and an homage to Perennial Philosophy In evoking a new vision of reality which is at the same time a modernized version of an old image The Other Perennial Philosophy A Metaphysical Dialectic seeks to entice readers to rethink their own views on a subject of crucial importance to all This book will appeal to anyone interested in philosophy and religion Schleiermacher: Life
