Dacey, John F. Travers, 2002 This chronologically

organized text is less expensive and briefer than most of the Human Lifespan texts. Its numerous examples drawn from education, nursing, and psychology make the content relevant to students from a variety of majors and backgrounds, while a highly praised study guide integrated into the text promotes and reinforces conceptual understanding. The new edition includes increased material on cognitive development and expanded coverage of culture.

Contemporary Human Behavior Theory Susan P. Robbins, Pranab Chatterjee, Edward R. Canda, 2006. This covers both the traditional and the most current and contemporary theories from a comparative theory perspective. Intended to be a source for comparison purposes, it is organized to include contemporary developments in traditional lifespan of the theory, coverage of the research that supports it, an analysis of the validity of that research, and a discussion of updated contemporary issues. It also includes new content on ecofeminism, neurobiology, neurotransmission, and behavior, feminist standpoint theory, theories of bisexual and transgender identity development, the role of shame in women's development, ethnic cultural identity development, and cultural competence theories of political economy and transpersonal theory.
