Experiencer Subjects in South Asian Languages Mahendra K. Verma, K. P. Mohanan, 1990 These papers explore an important syntactic feature of South Asian languages the experiencer subject construction Contributing scholars investigate this feature in such languages as Marathi Bhojpuri Sinhalese Marwari Oriya Punjabi Bengali Kalasha Gujarati Bepali Maithili and Malayalam The experiencer subject not only defines South Asian languages as a linguistic unit but also has implications for theoretical linguistics Mahendra Verma is a professor of linguistics at the University of Wisconsin Madison Tara Mohanan is a linguistics professor in the English department of the National University of Singapore

Hindu Approach to Indian Economy Bharat Jhunjhunwala, 2005 This book makes a path breaking effort to build two bridges The first bridge is between the Hindu tradition and modern economics The author holds that the market system is consistent with the Hindu tradition However it should be actively controlled by the state in public good The second bridge is between Hindu tradition and socialist politics The socialist paradigm does not ensure that the socialist leadership will work in the interests of the people The only motivation for it to do so would be spiritual growth The socialist leaders may work for social good only when this spiritual objective is placed before them The book calls for an end to this schism in the soul of India and builds a new vision that is Hindu socialist and market oriented at the same time

'Muslim Woman'/Muslim women Patricia Jeffery, Kaveri Qureshi, 2024-11-25 This book addresses South Asian Muslim women's lived experiences whilst questioning dominant concepts of agency Negative homogenising constructions of the Muslim Woman are not the result of a knowledge deficit but constitutive of Euro American and Hindu nationalist forms of civilizational self assurance Portraying the richness and diversity of Muslim women's voices and agency cannot therefore rectify discourses casting Muslim women as invisible or silent so long as the vision of agency is shackled to dominant feminist precepts Mindful of this problem the book examines Muslim women's legal agency with respect to the family their claims making upon the state livelihoods and the impact of male outmigration on left behind wives Working across these domains of everyday life contributors highlight how women's vulnerabilities within their families dovetail with oppressions experienced in the local state the labour market and in the streets Women's economic locations continue to shape their agency in crucial ways with upward mobility often entailing greater restrictions on women's mobility and independence yet the chapters caution against romanticising the ironic independence of poverty Collectively this volume showcases Muslim women's diverse identities and desires that may be sidelined in dominant concepts of agency This book will be beneficial for scholars and students of South Asian Studies interested in gender justice politics and the intersection of religion culture and identity The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Contemporary South Asia

A World Scientific Encyclopedia Of Business Storytelling, Set 1: Corporate And Business Strategies Of Business Storytelling (A 5-volume Set), 2023-08-17 This set of multi reference works is meant to be read together as the five volumes interlace one another like the laces of a shoe in the famous painting by Vincent van Gogh Who will wear the shoes is a question long debated in art history and philosophy If we take these five volumes from different points of view on the theory and practice of business storytelling then we have a crisscrossing a new and impressive dialogue for the reader This set is presented as a new way to lace up the laces of business storytelling Volume 1 aims to recount narratives in a variety of ways so that the precepts of entrepreneurial storytelling can be made accessible to a variety of audiences academic practitioner student and community member Entrepreneurship has a long history and tradition but there are disputed ways of doing business storytelling in entrepreneurship that the next four volumes articulate Volume 2 provides insights into stories fostering the idea of business and not necessarily business itself It focuses specifically on history contributing to the current debates within management and organizational history around the idea of the historic turn It reflects on the idea of business and beyond could there be more to history and business storytelling than what has previously been accepted in the field This book sets out to explore a diverse array of alternative modes and multiple ways of storying organizations The editors intentionally sought to involve an international network of authors with diverse storytelling accounts of history as a way of helping build out this new storytelling paradigm in a diverse and inclusive ethic As a result this volume showcases a broad spectrum of critical storytelling from geographically diverse authors working in universities small businesses and public service throughout Brazil Canada Finland the United Kingdom and the United States To reflect these dynamics and for the stories in this volume to fit together chapters were organized into three themes stories of processing history tales of history as method and narratives of history through a business opportunity Volume 3 features stories that reflect the exacerbated inequalities of race gender and income across the world These inequalities and power relations remain continuously contested particularly in these trying times despite being captive to a particular economic ideology built on the premise of exploitation and subjugation The stories told in this volume tell against the orthodoxy the colonizer and the seemingly powerful They are organized as stories of resistance emancipation and transformation They invite us to rethink the multiple ways to restructure power relations between the colonizer and the colonized and open up spaces for the marginalized underprivileged voices Volume 4 is designed to create a new business storytelling paradigm that critically approaches business narratives that have historically privileged a corporate agenda It explores the various ways that images of the other in business are developed presented and accounted for through powerful and dominant narratives The stories in this volume collectively help readers to understand resist and provide strategies for change through various analyses of how business narratives come to develop get written are legitimized are challenged and get changed over time Volume 5 brings together the practices specific to the socioeconomic approach to management SEAM SEAM is a method of change management developed through research interventions carried out in more than 2 000 companies and organizations since 1975 This method is systemic it considers the whole company and tends to simultaneously increase social and economic performance by focusing mainly on the development of human skills and behaviors making it

Merrill,2009 Can the subaltern joke Christi A Merrill answers by invoking riddling oral based fictions from Hindi Rajasthani Sanskrit and Urdu that dare to laugh at what traditions often keep hidden whether spouse abuse ethnic violence or the uncertain legacies of a divinely wrought sex change Herself a skilled translator Merrill uses these examples to investigate the expectation that translated work should allow the non English speaking subaltern to speak directly to the English speaking reader She plays with the trope of speaking to argue against treating a translated text as property as a singular material object to be carried across as translatulus implies She refigures translation as a performative telling in turn from the Hindi word anuvad to explain how a text might be multiply possessed She thereby challenges the distinction between original and derivative fundamental to nationalist and literary discourse humoring our melancholic fixation on what is lost Instead she offers strategies for playing along with the subversive wit found in translated texts Sly jokes and spirited double entendres she suggests require equally spirited double hearings The playful lessons offered by these narratives provide insight into the networks of transnational relations connecting us across a sea of differences Generations of multilingual audiences in India have been navigating this Ocean of the Stream of Stories since before the 11th century arriving at a fluid sense of commonality across languages Salman Rushdie is not the first to pose crucial questions of belonging by telling a version of this narrative the work of non English language writers like Vijay Dan Detha whose tales are at the core of this book asks what responsibilities we have to make the rights and wrongs of these fictions come alive age after age A Dictionary of the Hindee Language ,1875

India ,1918 Politics of Patronage and Protest Nandita Prasad Sahai,2006 With particular reference to Jodhpur Rajasthan India The Female Voice in Sufi Ritual Shemeem Burney Abbas,2010-06-04 The female voice plays a more central role in Sufi ritual especially in the singing of devotional poetry than in almost any other area of Muslim culture Female singers perform sufiana kalam or mystical poetry at Sufi shrines and in concerts folk festivals and domestic life while male singers assume the female voice when singing the myths of heroines in qawwali and sufiana kalam Yet despite the centrality of the female voice in Sufi practice throughout South Asia and the Middle East it has received little scholarly attention and is largely unknown in the West This book presents the first in depth study of the female voice in Sufi practice in the subcontinent of Pakistan and India Shemeem Burney Abbas investigates the rituals at the Sufi shrines and looks at women s participation in them as well as male performers use of the female voice The strengths of the book are her use of interviews with both prominent and grassroots female and male musicians and her transliteration of audio and videotaped performances Through them she draws vital connections between oral culture and the written Sufi poetry that the musicians sing for their audiences This research clarifies why the female voice is so important in Sufi practice and underscores the many contributions of women to Sufism and its rituals Lok Sabha Debates India.
