

Parenting Plan Enforcement Instructions for Packet No. 5A

Notice about these instructions and forms.

These instructions are not a complete statement of the law. Neither court nor court staff are permitted to give legal advice. For legal information, please talk to a lawyer, visit your local law library, or refer to the "Additional Resources" section on the last page of these instructions.

The instructions refer to some forms not included in this packet. You may get the forms at: <http://www.courts.org/egov/lin> and click on FORMS. Linn County Court also has the forms available in Room 107.

Linn County Court has local rules, programs and procedures which may not be explained in these instructions. Please refer to the "Linn County Supplementary Local Court Rules."

Notice about Enforcement of Orders from Other Courts.

To enforce an out of state order or judgment, the following forms are required: (1) Enforcement of Out of State Child Custody and Parenting Time Judgments and (2) Parenting Time/Plan, Petition for Enforcement of Out of State Order. If the order was entered in another county, you will need to file a request to transfer with the court that entered the order.

STEP 1

Fill out the following forms: Motion for Order to Show Cause Re: Enforcement of Parenting Plan and Order (MOTION AND ORDER) and Affidavit Supporting Motion for Enforcement of Parenting Plan (AFFIDAVIT). If your case involves an out of state order or judgment, you will be filing the petition listed above instead of the motion. The case heading is the same as it was when visitation or parenting time was ordered if you are filing in the same county. For enforcement of out of state orders, you are the petitioner.

Don't fill in the section of the motion that sets the hearing date, and don't fill in the judge's portion of the order.

Wait to sign the affidavit until you are in the presence of a court clerk or a notary public. You will sign where it says "I certify that this is a true copy" only on copies to serve on the other party.

Attach a certified copy of the order or judgment that established the parenting time or visitation you are now asking the court to enforce to the original MOTION (or PETITION) and ORDER you just filled out.

Make two copies of the AFFIDAVIT and one copy of the MOTION AND ORDER (or PETITION). Keep one copy of each for your records. On the second copy of the AFFIDAVIT sign your name where it says, "I certify that this is a true copy."

STEP 2

File the original MOTION (or PETITION) and ORDER and the AFFIDAVIT with the court clerk and pay the filing fee or ask for a form to waive or defer the fee.

Fill in the case number on your copy if you don't have one already.

Linn County Parenting Plan 2010:

Parental Alienation and Family Reunification Pearl S. Berman, Ethan M. Weisinger, 2024-02-01 This book on parental alienation and family reunification provides family court professionals with critical background in child development dynamics present in violent families and how to evaluate the testimony of experts to ensure it values children's views, best interests of the children and follows evidence-based practice as laid out in the Child Welfare Information Gateway report 2020. Family court judges should make decisions per the best interests of the child standard. High conflict custody cases make this complicated, especially when reunification services are requested. In the middle of contentious proceedings, judges oftentimes receive conflicting information from parents. Judges and family law professionals can be lead astray relying on unproven constructs and instruments not meeting the criteria of reliability and validity. Mandating victimized children into reunification programs that are neither evidence-based nor trauma-informed can cause further harm to the children. This book will be of interest to those working in the family courts, particularly expert witnesses, clinical psychologists, therapists, children's services workers including social workers, child protection court workers, mental health professionals involved in child custody decisions and researchers with an interest in parental alienation. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Journal of Family Trauma: Child Custody, Child Development, Home, School, and Community Collaboration. Kathy B. Grant, Julie A. Ray, 2018-02-27 Home School and Community Collaboration uses the culturally responsive family support model as a framework to prepare teachers to work effectively with children from diverse families. Authors Kathy B. Grant and Julie A. Ray skillfully incorporate numerous real-life vignettes and case studies to show readers the practical application of culturally responsive family engagement. The Fourth Edition contains additional content that enhances the already relevant text, including a new section titled Perspectives on Poverty acknowledging the deep levels of poverty in the United States and the impact on family-school relations, increased coverage of Latino/Latina family connections and updated demographics focusing on the issues impacting same-sex families, families experiencing divorce, children and family members with chronic illnesses, military families, and grandparents raising children. With contributions from more than 22 experts in the field offering a wide range of perspectives, this book will help readers understand, appreciate, and support diverse families. This text is accompanied with FREE online resources. Parenting the Crisis Tracey Jensen, 2018-03-28 This book examines how pathologizing ideas of failing, chaotic, and dysfunctional families create a powerful consensus that Britain is in the grip of a parent crisis and are used to justify increasingly punitive state policies. Reports of Cases Decided in the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, State of New York New York (State). Supreme Court. Appellate Division, Marcus Tullius Hun, Jerome B. Fisher, Austin B. Griffin, Edward Jordan Dimock, Louis J. Rezzemini, Leland F. Coss, James M.
