

THE PERFECT BLOG POST

Goal = Grab Attention

Your headline gets read more than anything else on your website. That's why your headline serves one goal: grab attention so people feel compelled to read your opening.

Key Insight:

When people make snap decisions about text, they prefer fewer characters per line (CPL). The half-width image shortens the line length of the opening—fewer CPL—thus enticing people to read because it caters to their preferences.

Connect Emotionally

Your first piece of content should aim to trigger an emotion in your reader. When people get emotional, they pay attention. They're also more likely to take action after being put into an emotional state.

<http://socialtriggers.com/craft-contagious-content>

Big Promise #2

Here's where you promise people exactly what they'll learn... the step-by-step method... the how to. You already connected, now's the time to get people to take action.

Buy or Subscribe?

Here's where you close out your article with another call to action. You can include a "buy now" CTA or a "subscribe." I often use subscribe.

Key Insight:

Direct marketers have long known that if you get people to read your first 3-4 sentences, they're more likely to read your entire article. That said, the point of your opening is to get people to read your opening... and that's it.

<http://socialtriggers.com/power-of-curiousy>

Big Promise

This sub-headline has one main goal... to entice people to read your first piece of content and that's it. How? Make a promise to your readers... give them a benefit.

The Soundbite

Use a click to tweet "quote" right here. Why? Who do people quote? People quote authorities. Enticing people to quote you positions you as an authority. Plus, people like tweeting quotes and you'll get more traffic from social media as a result of it.

<http://socialtriggers.com/sound-bites-traffic>

The How To Section

Give people practical, easy to implement advice. Get people results, and they'll remember you forever. Also, practically useful content is more viral than other types of content.

Weblogs. A Critical Analysis of a New E-business Model Carina Schebitz,2018-06-18 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2016 in the subject Business economics Offline Marketing and Online Marketing grade 2 0 University of Applied Sciences Essen language English abstract The primary function of this bachelor thesis is to connect the subject of E Business models with the web 2 0 phenomenon of weblogs Therefore it is necessary to ascertain whether blogs can commercially perform as a characteristic of E Business models Furthermore this paper should reveal what specific factors need to be considered and which challenges can occur when professionally operating a blog Thus the digital economics research for example the literature of Kollmann Reynolds or Wirtz provide a broad base concerning the revenue models and the categorization of classical E Businesses such as E Commerce Websites However it does not scrutinize the particular requirements of weblogs On the other hand the relatively new body of literature about blogs focuses on the software and technological fundamentals the specific characteristics as well as the different characteristics Moreover in the year 2016 many professional bloggers exist that can make a living from their publishing occupation This indicates that weblogs already represent a form of an E Business model However the author does not know of published studies nor papers that have empirically investigated or described the business models of weblogs In order to fill that void the purpose of this bachelor thesis is to provide a systematical guideline from an economic perception in order to establish a weblog It will include potential risk factors and particular requirements as the following chapters will enumerate more clearly Ultimately this paper s aim is to serve potential future bloggers in gaining knowledge about factors they need to pay attention to from the beginning of their work as well as marketers that need to regard unwritten rules when it comes to working with influencers such as bloggers
