The Christian Cross in American Public Life John R. Vile,2024-01-23 The cross is one of Christianity s most distinctive symbols increasingly cutting across Catholic Protestant and other denominational divides Although the US acknowledges no official religion a variety of both Christian and non Christian denominations have flourished Crosses dot the landscape sometimes towering over it and at other times simply marking a grave or the site of a traffic accident or providing a place for contemplation Courts continue to decide whether it is better to remove long standing crosses on public property to protect the separation of church and state or whether removing such symbols might be misinterpreted as expressing hostility towards religion Whether marking identity triumph love grief or sacrifice the cross remains important in American life and continues to be the subject of works of art music literature and political religious and social rhetoric all of which this volume addresses in an accessible A to Z format My Name Is Asher Lev Chaim Potok,2003-03 For use in schools and libraries only The making of a great contemporary painter from the first stirrings of a commanding talent to the triumphant exhibition that wins recognition for his art and marks his final heart rending estrangement from the world Imagining Jewish Art Aaron Rosen,2009 What does Jewish art look like Where many scholars critics and curators have gone searching for the essence of Jewish art in Biblical illustrations and portraits of rabbis Rosen sets out to discover Jewishness in unlikely places How he asks have modern Jewish painters explored their Jewish identity using an artistic past which is by and large non Jewish In this new book we encounter some of the great works of Western art history through Jewish eyes We see Matthias Grunewald s Isenheim Altarpiece re imagined by Marc Chagall 1887 1985 traces of Paolo Uccello and Piero della Francesca in Philip Guston 1913 1980 and images by Diego Velazquez and Paul Cezanne studiously reworked by R B Kitaj 1932 2007 This highly comparative study draws on theological philosophical and literary sources from Franz Rosenzweig to Franz Kafka and Philip Roth Rosen deepens our understanding not only of these three modern painters but also of how art might serve as a key resource for rethinking such fundamental Jewish concepts as family tradition and homeland
