Viera,1997 Today more and more linguists and language specialists the world over are acknowledging the vital role of ESP within the English language teaching and learning area Consequently teachers and learners alike are discovering that there is a wider scope available to them in the field Hopefully the joint effort that went into the publishing of this volume will serve to motivate others to continue working in this direction Current Issues in English Language Methodology Eva Alcón Soler,1998 An interesting contribution to the discussed task of adopting an effective methodology in the teaching of English as a foreign language Aspects such as the application of a cognitive theory the usage of electronic mail in the classroom the making of informative glossaries take that question again and new proposals are actualised Current Issues in Second/Foreign Language Teaching and Teacher Development Thomai Alexiou,Christina Gitsaki,2016-01-14 Current Issues in Second Foreign Language Teaching and Teacher Development Research and Practice represents a collection of selected papers from the 17th World Congress of the International Association of Applied Linguistics AILA which was held in August 2014 in Brisbane Australia The volume comprises 18 chapters presenting current research projects and discussing issues related to second language acquisition teaching and teacher education in a variety of contexts from around the world This collection of research papers will be of use to both new and seasoned researchers in the field of applied linguistics Teacher educators language teachers and language policy makers will find this volume equally useful as the papers address current issues in language education Imagining Apocalypse NA NA,2016-04-30 This volume brings together essays by specialists in different disciplines on the cultural expression of apocalypse in particular in anglophone science fiction of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Approaching these works from historical philosophical linguistic and literary perspectives the contributors examine the relationship between secular and spiritual apocalypse connecting the fiction and films to their historical moment Not surprisingly war recurs throughout this material as a critical turning point fulfilment of prophecy or prelude to a new age In particular the essays explore the issue of whether modern apocalypse is seen as an ending or a beginning considered under its political ethnic and gendered aspects Among the writers covered are H G Wells Olaf Stapledon and such contemporary figures as Michael Moorcock J G Ballard and Storm Constantine Linguistic Analysis of Literary Data Fareed Hameed Al-Hindawi,Musaab Al-Khazaali,2017-04 Literary data is supposed to reflect real life situations and is at the same time written in a style of writing that is considered as highly elevated Such reasons have prompted the contributors to this book to deal with this type of data Such attempts range from semantics to stylistics and pragmatics This book introduces linguistic analyses of literary data from different points of view This involves dealing with various linguistic topics and different types of literary data Hence many models are presented to analyze the linguistic aspects of those topics in the light of the genre in which those topics are undertaken Accordingly different results are yielded from those analyses and this makes each type of analysis distinct from the other ones It is hoped that this work will be a useful source to all those whether theoretically practically or both interested in linguistics pragmatics of literature applied linguistics and literary stylistics

Second Language Reading and Vocabulary Learning Thomas Huckin, Margot Haynes, James Coady, 1993 Reading ability and vocabulary knowledge are two of the most important components of performance in a second language especially in academic settings Each depend on the other as vocabulary knowledge is the single most important factor in reading comprehension while reading is the single most important means by which intermediate and advanced learners acquire new words This symbiotic relationship is the subject of this volume The authors argue that building vocabulary through reading is a fruitful but complex activity that needs better understanding and more careful guidance This book is unique in its emphases on original research Eight of the 14 chapters are empirical studies published for the first time including classroom based case studies experimental research and think aloud protocol analysis In every chapter consideration is given to the pedagogical implications and possible applications of the research findings Lengthy editorial comments at the end of each chapter reinforce this practical concern Issues and Options in Language Teaching Hans Heinrich Stern, John Patrick Brierley Allen, 1992 Research in Reading and Writing Makhan Lal Tickoo, 1994 Memorias, III Coloquio Latinoamericano de Lenguas con Propósitos Específicos Fernando Castaños, 1995 The Intertextual Dimension of Discourse Beatriz Penas, 1996
