celebrating the profane depths and transcendent heights of experience and reporting both truly Baptized and buried a Catholic he was also heavily influenced by Buddhism especially from 1954 until 1957 when he integrated traditional Eastern belief into several novels Catholicism remained an essential force in his writing but his study of Buddhism was serious and not solely in the service of his literary art As he wrote to Malcolm Cowley in 1954 Since I saw you I took up the study of Buddhism and for me it s the word and the way I was looking for Giamo also seeks IT a vital force in the experience of living that takes one by surprise suspending for the moment belief in the real concrete grey everyday of facts of self and selfhood its various meanings paths and oscillations from romantic lyricism to the ragged and ecstatic joy of pure being and from the void pit of the Great World Snake to the joyous pain of amorous love and finally from Catholic Buddhist serenity to the onset of penitential martyrhood Evening hours, ed. by E.H.
