Student Guide to Research in the Digital Age Leslie Stebbins, 2005-12-30 One of the most perplexing aspects of research today is what to do when there is too much information on a topic. What then of the librarian charged with teaching new generations to appreciate the search for intellectual wheat especially when the chaff has greater appeal? The key suggests Leslie Stebbins is to impress upon students the importance of good filtering instincts and careful management of search results. At the same time it is equally essential to impress upon them the particular challenges and controversies that accompany research in a digital environment. Chapter one provides a step by step introduction to both research and critical evaluation that can be followed for any assignment. Chapters two through seven focus on specific types of information resources when to use them where to find them and how to evaluate them. Chapter eight offers guidance on how to develop a note taking system cite sources avoid plagiarism and organize references. Students and librarians alike will benefit from Stebbin's suggestions strategies and straightforward examples.

The Handbook of Art and Design Librarianship Paul Glassman, Judy Dyki, 2017-10-24. The Handbook of Art and Design Librarianship integrates theory and practice to offer guidelines for information professionals working in art and design environments who need to support and anticipate the information needs of artists, designers, architects, and the historians who study those disciplines. Since the first edition of this title, the world of art and design libraries has been transformed by rapid advances in technology, an explosion in social media, and the release of new standards and guidelines. This new edition, offering mostly entirely new chapters, provides an accessible, fully updated guide to the world of academic art and design libraries from a range of international experts who reflect current practice at a global level. Coverage includes case studies and library profiles providing benchmarks for developing facilities, teaching and learning, including the ACRL Framework, teaching with special collections, meta-literacies, instructional design, and cultural differences; developments in institutional repositories, digital humanities, and makerspaces; contemporary library design spaces for collaboration and sustainability. This book will be useful reading for students taking library and information science courses in art librarianship, special collections, and archives, as well as practicing library and information professionals in art and design, school libraries, art museum libraries, and public libraries.
