References:

- A. British Standard BS58: Part 1 - Fire Detection & Alarm Systems for Buildings - Code of Practice for System design, Installation & Warnings; Section 2 - User Responsibilities

INTRODUCTION

- 1.0. The Responsible Person<sup>1</sup> for the premises is to ensure that a Weekly Test of the building's Fire Alarm (FA) System is carried out under The Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005 (Article 17).
- 1.1. The 'Weekly Test' set out below is in addition to the routine maintenance undertaken by a professional fire alarm engineering company in respect to the building's system. Weekly testing for most buildings on the UCL Estate will be carried out by UCL Maintenance Staff. However, in a number of premises Local Managers/Responsible Persons are responsible for the weekly testing of the fire alarm system and the up-keep of records.

RESPONSIBLE PERSON

- 2.0. The 'Responsible Person' is to undertake or nominate a suitable person (e.g. Residence or Facility Managers) to supervise the fire alarm system. The person should have sufficient authority to authorise any necessary work to the alarm system immediately to ensure it is kept operational at all times.

KEEPING OF RECORDS

- 3.0. The 'Responsible Person' is to ensure that the Fire Alarm Logbook is kept up-to-date with the following events recorded in it:
- Dates & times of alarms (genuine, practice, tests or false) together with their causes where known.
  - Dates, times & types of defects & faults, what action taken, reported to whom & when.
  - Dates of tests of the system (i.e. weekly, fire drill etc).
  - Dates of servicing (routine or special).
  - Dates & times of all periods of disconnection or disablement.
  - Any alterations to the system.
- 3.1. It is vital that all actions are recorded accurately in the logbook for the protection of the 'Responsible Person' and made available to any authorised person (e.g. Fire Brigade).

<sup>1</sup> In the Fire Safety Order 'Responsible Person' means the employer in relation to a workplace, if the workplace is to any extent under his control.
