AP Human Geography - Chapter Six: Religion

1. What questions about religion do geographers try to answer? Where and Why?

2. Why do geographers find the tensions between globalization and local diversity especially acute in religion? (Give five reasons.)
  1. People care deeply about their religion and draw their core values and beliefs from it

  2. Some religions have universal appeal and others local appeal

  3. Religious values show how people feel and the meaningful ways they alter the landscape

  4. Most (but not all) religions require strict adherence, so adopting a global religion could mean turning away from traditional local religion

  5. Migrants take their religion with them and typically don't adopt a new religion, but unlike language retain their own

3. Explain how universalizing religions differ from ethnic religions: Universalizing religions attempt to be global and appeal to all people, not to just one culture or location. An ethnic religion appeals primarily to one group of people living in one place

4. Identify each of the following:
  - a. Religious branch: a large and fundamental division within a religion

  - b. Religious denomination: a division of a branch that unites a number of local congregations in a single legal and administrative body

  - c. Religious sect: a relatively small group that has broken away from an established denomination

5. Name the three universalizing religions
  - a. Christianity

  - b. Islam

  - c. Buddhism

Australian Aboriginal Religion Ronald Murray Berndt, 1974

This work is a serious anthropological study of Australian Aboriginal religion It is designed to be read by adults and is primarily for use in universities and or similar institutions It is not therefore for use in schools Where Australian Aborigines are concerned and in areas where traditional Aboriginal religion is still significant this book should be used only after consultation with local male religious leaders This restriction is important It is imposed because the concept of what is secret or may not be revealed to the uninitiated in Aboriginal religious belief and action varies considerably throughout the Australian continent And because the varying views of Aborigines in this respect must on all occasions be observed

Penelope J. E. Davies, 2004-03-01 Davies sets out to ask How did the Romans bury Caesar And with what monuments did they sing his praises The architectural elaboration of these structures their siting in the capital the lines of vision and approaches that exposed them to view the paths their complex outworks formed for visitors to walk are all picked out with skill and presented with care in Death and the Emperor Times Literary Supplement This concise and lucidly written book is a very valuable new contribution to the studies of Roman imperial cult political propaganda and topography and has the added benefit of discussing complex scholarly disputes in a manner that the non specialist will probably follow with ease There is material in this volume that will be immensely useful to researchers in many areas archaeology history of architecture iconography history of religion and Roman political propaganda to name just a few I strongly recommend it to scholars interested in any or all of the above topics Bryn Mawr Classical Review Even though its focus is on only seven specimens of architecture the book touches upon a broad array of aspects of Roman imperial culture Elegantly written and generously illustrated this book should be of great interest to the general public as well as to the scholarly community American Journal of Archaeology
