purchases we simply tell ourselves that we'll find some use for it in the future. Because of this reckless habit we have piles of clothes in our closets waiting to be worn. How many times have you found yourself frustrated looking for the right clothes to wear? Why is it that after digging through your closet for half an hour you still can't find anything good to wear? If this describes a scenario that you're all too familiar with, then it's time to admit it: you have a wardrobe problem that needs to be addressed immediately. This may sound far-fetched, but a wardrobe problem can negatively affect your day by causing a great deal of unnecessary anxiety. If you haven't picked out your outfit the night before, you find yourself stressed out first thing in the morning as you try to determine what to wear. This is not exactly the best way to start your day. After work has concluded, you may have realized that the stress caused by your dysfunctional wardrobe has caused more damage to your day than you could ever expect. Armed with this realization, you know it's time to do something drastic. Perhaps by now you have already thought of throwing away everything in your closet and starting a whole new wardrobe from scratch. Well, that's a start, but what's next? Chances are it won't be long before you resume your old habit of filling up your closet with useless clothes, and voila! You're back at it with the same old wardrobe dilemmas.
