Exploring Student Psychology in Online Higher Education Sprute, Kathleen MacDonald, Holbeck, Rick, 2026-01-16 As online education becomes an increasingly prominent mode of learning understanding the psychological experiences of students in virtual environments is more important than ever Unlike traditional classrooms online learning presents unique challenges and opportunities that can significantly impact motivation engagement and overall academic success Factors such as isolation digital fatigue and the need for motivation play a crucial role in shaping student outcomes By exploring the psychological dimensions of online learning educators and institutions can develop more effective strategies to support student well being and achievement Exploring Student Psychology in Online Higher Education explores the psychology of students in the dynamic landscape of online education This book emphasizes the pressing need for guidance on integrating technology to create effective and equitable online education Covering topics such as psychology higher education and online learning this book is an excellent resource for higher education faculty instructional designers institutional leaders educators researchers academicians and more Geography's Media Turn Chris Lukinbeal, Stanley D. Brunn, 2026-01-29 This edited volume examines how the arts and sciences have had to adapt engage confront and even alter research teaching and community service because of modern media The book describes how academics work with and through the media in their daily and professional lives The acceleration of changes to media in the digital age has been astounding whether due to social media web 2 0 new sensor technologies fake news or the rise of a post truth news media economy Many academics became media producers during COVID 19 having to engage in emergency remote teaching Further as academics we can no longer publish our results and expect a metered response from all entities but rather must promote and defend our work in the media and the classroom There is almost no part of academic work let alone human life that is not affected by media Many academics across the sciences and humanities now embrace the media as part of their daily practice and actively engage in media production through building podcasts and convergent media sites managing online courses and degree programs or being administrators or educators who interact with the media regularly at local national or international scales The chapters are original and written by a group of interdisciplinary junior and senior scholars from various world regions Leading the Next Era of Public Education Taylor P. Wrye, 2026-04-22 Leading the Next Era of Public Education presents a comprehensive framework for transforming any school or district in our rapidly evolving technology rich world Cognitive bias institutional routines and compliance cultures keep schools tied to what is familiar over what is effective Are these legacy structures effectively serving teachers and students in the age of artificial intelligence AI and extended reality XR This book offers a practical roadmap for executive leaders governing bodies and school level teams seeking to transition from incremental fixes to system redesign The book aligns strategy operations and instruction to support districts in delivering equitable student centered outcomes Chapters include a wealth of fresh ideas in the following areas Leadership and governance mission clarity transparent communication adaptive scheduling strategic planning and community engagement System architecture integrated technology ecosystems interoperability cybersecurity data quality and sustainable budgeting Teaching and learning asset based pedagogy competency based progression Universal Design for Learning and responsible AI integration Equity and accountability inclusive design routines digital equity benchmarks ethics centered feedback and public reporting tied to student impact And much more Readers will leave with a coherent implementable vision for an adaptive equitable student centered public education system that replaces legacy structures that no longer serve all learners and prioritizes mastery agency and well being
