

How did the Revolution begin?

Storming of the Bastille

The Paris mob, hungry because of the lack of food from poor harvests, took the law into their own hands. On July 14th, 1789, the mob rioted and attacked the royal prison called the Bastille. They saw the Bastille as a symbol of everything that was wrong with France. It was a symbol of the King and his government and the Paris mob wanted it destroyed. The Paris mob killed the governor of the prison, Marquis de Launay. The Soldiers in and around Paris refused to stop the attack, showing that King Louis XVI had also lost control of the army.
