Stone Heart M Pardalis, 2025-06-17 I was hanging from my arms but thinking about my life made it feel more like I was hanging from my neck I m Ren a senior in geology and I ve got one year left before graduating university One night closing up the library on campus an enormous gargoyle come to life with glowing eyes saves me from being assaulted Surely this is the guardian angel I ve been waiting for all of my life right No matter what he looks like I mean how else does he know details about me he shouldn t Like my name that I ve been looking for a way to escape beneath my parents oppression for years and that I ve got a penchant for magic Wait seriously He ll teach me magic in exchange for helping him He seems like a dream too good to be true Oh gosh now that I think about it this better not be a demon trying to trick me into entering a covenant with them Never in my lengthy existence had I felt this way for a living creature It was humiliating that I had been bested by a thief but to then get snared in my pursuit was nigh unforgivable Trapped as I am I m unable to return home but able to move between the World Barrier separating our realms Seeking aid from a human was my only recourse I had read up on humans and as I expected she was unpredictable and energetic I hadn t expected her to be so enchanting so perspective altering In her I had hoped to find a tool with which to pry myself free but I was quickly getting more so much more than I had bargained for
