How We Learn Benedict Carey, 2014

Innocence Dean Koontz, 2014 Addison Goodheart lives in solitude beneath the city an exile from a society which will destroy him if he is ever seen Books are his refuge and his escape he embraces the riches they have to offer By night he leaves his hidden chambers and through a network of storm drains and service tunnels makes his way into the central library And that is where he meets Gwyneth who like Addison also hides her true appearance and struggles to trust anyone But the bond between them runs deeper than the tragedies that have scarred their lives Something more than chance and nothing less than destiny has brought them together in a world whose hour of reckoning is fast approaching A thriller that's both chilling and fulfilling

PEOPLE Laced with fantastical mysticism it's an allegory of nonviolence acceptance and love in the face of adversity The narrative is intense with an old fashioned ominousness and artistically crafted with an optimistic and unexpected conclusion Something different this way comes from Mr Koontz's imagination Enjoy
