Distribution of Insurance-Based Investment Products Pierpaolo Marano, Ioannis Rokas, 2019-03-27 The book addresses a topic at the intersection of two heavily regulated sectors insurance and investment services Until recently scholars and professionals have approached insurance and investment services as two separate categories in the financial services sector and as being governed by separate regulatory frameworks In practice however the boundaries were and are blurred a reality that regulators have begun to recognize and address in their more recent regulatory texts The first part of the book approaches the new standards applicable to investment products based on insurance insurance based investment products IBIPs These rules are harmonized across the EU The rationale behind this new definition is provided together with a description of these products limitations The analysis addresses the new rules and explores the legal regime and relevant standards applicable to IBIPs The organizational rules concerning the design and distribution of IBIPs are also examined and the book highlights e g how these rules are inspired by the principles of conduct In closing the ADR systems are analysed in order to ascertain whether or not they can offer an effective tool for settling disputes over these products In turn the second part focuses on the liability for distribution of IBIPs which ranks as one of the most conspicuous and relatively new legal phenomena but at the same time represents an exceptionally important field of civil liability in today s world Liability is still regulated at the national level Thus the four largest life insurance markets in the EU are considered along with the largest emerging market for life insurance The chapters on national laws also consider whether and if so how the new harmonized rules on IBIPs are being combined with those already in force in the jurisdictions considered The goal is to determine whether the new rules are likely to change the doctrine and case law approach to these products or whether the European legislators choices have no real impact on the protection of clients

The Influence of the Insurance Distribution Directive (IDD) on the German Insurance Market Philipp Haye, 2018 This thesis analyzes the effect of the Insurance Distribution Directive IDD on the German insurance market This EU directive was initiated to increase customer protection by creating a framework that better aligns the interest and incentives of consumers insurers and insurance intermediaries Especially in Germany the IDD was viewed as an impulse to move the insurance intermediation market from the currently dominant compensation based remuneration system towards a fee for advice system However the analysis shows that the result of the German implementation of the IDD is rather soft and will not lead to a major strengthening of the fee for advice system A thorough literature review and an analysis on the effects of stronger regulations in other EU member states prior to the introduction of the IDD lead to the conclusion that a fee for advice system is generally not superior to the compensation based system and therefore the decision of the German legislator to not considerably restrict insurance intermediaries with respect to their remuneration seems reasonable from the author's point of view protection such as the Insurance Distribution Directive the PRIIPs Regulation and the UCITS Directive The analysis reveals numerous inconsistencies and interpretation difficulties The author argues that while some of the shortcomings are inherent to the EU piecemeal approach other problems should and could have been avoided by adopting a holistic approach of financial regulation and supervision Markets in Financial Instruments Directive II Implementation ,2016 Markets in Financial Instruments Directive II MiFID II takes effect on 3 January 2018 and this consultation paper forms part of the Financial Conduct Authority FCA process to make the necessary changes to the FCA Handbook to implement it As much of MiFID II is in directly applicable obligations the FCA and firms need to fulfil their legal responsibilities from the point they come into force The consultation paper covers a range of issues including position limits and reporting for commodity derivatives systems and controls requirements for firms providing MiFID investment services and client asset protections Extracted from FCA Press Release dated 29 July 2016 Executive's Guide to Solvency II David Buckham,Jason

Implementation of the Insurance Mediation Directive for Long Term Insurance Business ,2003 Insurance Distribution Directive ,2019 General good rules are provisions which are part of the legal system of the host Member State The basic principle underlying the general good in the insurance sector is that an insurance undertaking or an insurance intermediary operating under the respective arrangements laid down by Solvency II or the Insurance Distribution Directive IDD is obliged to adapt its activities to the host Member State rules if the measures enforced against it serve the general good irrespective of whether it carries on those activities through freedom of establishment namely as a branch or under the freedom to provide services In line with the requirement for EIOPA to examine national general good rules this report provides both a factual description of the types of rules which are published on the websites of the competent authorities and are applicable to insurance distribution activities and a general assessment facilitating the checking of main areas of European Insurance Law within the Digital Age Cristina Poncibò, Piotr Tereskiewicz, 2025-10-27 This edited volume examines how recent technological innovations are transforming European insurance law focusing on critical issues such as transparency information duties fairness and the regulation of insurance contracts for both professional and private policyholders While new business models like digital platforms and robo advisory services are rapidly emerging European law has yet to provide a sufficiently tailored regulatory response The current sectoral framework notably Directive EU 2016 97 on insurance distribution IDD offers a general principle based approach but lacks the specificity needed to effectively address innovative digital insurance distribution models In parallel broader regulatory initiatives such as the EU Artificial Intelligence Act EU AI Act and the Digital Services Act DSA are poised to reshape the digital insurance ecosystem The EU AI Act introduces horizontal rules governing AI systems including those used in automated underwriting risk profiling and robo advisory services thereby directly affecting the design and accountability of algorithmic tools in insurance distribution especially those deemed high risk The DSA imposes new responsibilities on digital platforms with potential implications for InsurTech firms acting as intermediaries or aggregators Additionally there is ongoing uncertainty as to whether existing consumer protection instrument such as the Unfair Contract Terms Directive 93 13 EEC the Unfair Commercial Practices Directive 2005 29 EC and the Omnibus Directive 2019 2161 EC are sufficient to address the novel risks and challenges posed by digital insurance services Meanwhile regulatory guidance from supervisory bodies such as EIOPA and national authorities is increasingly addressing InsurTech related legal questions in a more targeted manner By providing a normative and comparative legal analysis this volume addresses a significant gap in current scholarship It calls on legal scholars and insurance experts to reassess the role of technology in shaping EU insurance law and to reflect on whether the regulatory principle of technological neutrality remains viable Ultimately the book argues for an integrated regulatory approach that aligns socio technical governance with the specific demands of insurance law ensuring effective consumer protection in an increasingly digital landscape
