

ENGINEERING SCIENCE

The background of the cover is a digital landscape. It features a perspective grid of lines that recede towards a horizon. The sky is a gradient of colors from dark purple to bright orange, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. Several glowing lines in red, blue, and orange crisscross the scene, some appearing as jagged paths. There are also three glowing spheres: a large red one on the left, a smaller orange one on the right, and a larger red one at the bottom center.
