The Wonderful Wizard of Oz L. Frank Baum, 2021-03-22 Perspective and Narrator The Wonderful Wizard of Oz

brings the reader through a third person point of view through the use of an accompanying narrator Themes of home journeying and hidden strength are expounded on through the use of the third person narrator About the Title The book puts the focus on Dorothy an orphaned girl who is the main character and frequently seeks the advice of the wonderful wizard thus making the wizard an essential character In the end Dorothy discovered the man was just an ordinary person with a wonderful heart but not a wizard as many people in Oz think The wonderful wizard of Oz is a beautiful story and the author himself defined it as a modern fairytale We have to keep in mind that even though it has been more than a hundred years since this book was published it still carries the name of a modern fairytale It was published around the time that the Grimm brothers and Charles Perrault were publishing and even then it was different from all the other fairytales While he was writing the book the author thought that the kids need a story with no ghosts fairies or any scary events He wanted to entertain the children and keep the book full of joy and without sadness He stated that in the preface of the book In every modern fairytale the author follows his idea and gets a lot of poeticism and joy into the story and leaves out the cruelty and sadness In this book we will meet the Wicked Witch from the East and one from the West but instead of being scary they are funny The book has a lot of positive characters such as Dorothy and her friends Cowardly Lion Scarecrow Tin Woodman They represent three very important characteristics such as courage wisdom and sensitivity The witches are divided into the good ones and the bad ones Even though the author wanted to entertain the kids this book carries a moral lesson Everything that we admire can be found in ourselves and we just need to know how to recognize it The author tries to tell us that we can do miracles every single day even if they are small because the small things make life real Besides all of that it is important not to be selfish because together we can find the true meaning of life
