The Art and Craft of Fiction Michael Kardos, 2013-02-11 Brief practical and wonderfully readable The Art and Craft of Fiction gives aspiring writers all they need in under 400 pages Michael Kardos focuses on technique and presents fiction writing as a teachable and learnable art With an organization built on methods and process rather than traditional literary elements Kardos helps students begin their stories write strong scenes use images and detail revise for aesthetics and mechanics and finish and polish their own stories He delivers clear instruction effective examples and assignments that build toward finished work in a tone reviewers praise as pitch perfect A brief fiction anthology at the back of the book of 15 works that Kardos draws on in his instruction provides stories that students will love to be inspired by Writing from Deeper Within

Bernard Selling, 2012-02-07 Works of art cause us to contemplate our human condition with unending fascination They take us into another dimension a dimension in which our understanding of the world we live in becomes richer and our appreciation even awe of the power of a human hand to craft such a work grows In this way the works of Leonardo Ibsen and Mozart enrich our understanding of the world in which we function The techniques required to create works of art are neither difficult to grasp nor difficult to use They simply take time thoughtfulness and a willingness to experiment rewrite to see which are most useful Bernard Selling guides people through the writing process explaining what makes writing great one step at a time Selling has taught writing courses for over thirty years and the 25th Anniversary Edition of his seminal guide to life story writing Writing from Within will be published by Hunter House in April 2012 Writing from Deeper Within a special eBook only sequel contains Selling's refined and expanded curriculum The sequel includes a summary of Selling's Writing from Within method which teaches people to learn how to write by using the subject they know best themselves Then with techniques that will help people create more complete powerful and universal stories Selling shows how people can expand their work into full length plays memoirs screenplays or novels Essentially Selling teaches that all great stories no matter the genre or form have well developed fascinating main characters and intriguing plots All characters need goals that they pursue the greater the obstacles in the way of that goal the more interesting the stories become The difference between shorter works and longer works is that shorter works usually only have one obstacle for each goal and longer works have smaller goals and obstacles within the main plot The goals and obstacles push the story forward while minor characters and well crafted backstories contribute to the audience's understanding of what has happened before the curtain comes up and is essential to most narratives To help writers Selling provides draft samples each step of the way to show how his advice improves every piece of writing He describes Story pacing techniques Strategies for subtly adding exposition and denouement Revealing and unraveling character Writing stories within stories Developing unique voices within the same story Researching and writing family histories Advanced steps like creating visual motifs employing sub text and separating the writer from the central character He also includes a full chapter of his students finished work to show the potential of his method All of the techniques that Selling presents are just as relevant to the non fiction writer as to the fiction writer and all writers new and old will write with more skill understand themselves and their characters better and be able to turn their writing into art

What's Your Story? Marion Dane Bauer, 1992-04-20 The award winning author provides mentoring and practical and technical advice in this handy how to book as useful to teachers as to young writers School Library Journal starred review Storytelling is a universal experience From an early age we begin to shape our own world by crafting tales But learning to tell and write a good story isn't easy It takes dedication and practice just like for a musician or an athlete and it can be just as rewarding to accomplish as winning a game or mastering an instrument It s the kind of work that feeds our souls and makes us glad to be alive In What s Your Story Newbery Medal winning author Marion Dane Bauer discusses how to write fiction from beginning to end including creating a story plan choosing the best idea bringing characters to life deciding on a point of view creating realistic dialogue keeping readers hooked and revising and polishing the finished product Her last comment is telling Knowing your craft can help you tell a story But only by taking risks can you make art After many pages of provocative information and straightforward counsel that sentence may be the one to launch youngsters to the challenge The book speaks directly to young writers but many adults teachers librarians reviewers editors would be writers will also find this sensible dissection of the storytelling process invaluable Kirkus Reviews starred review A pragmatic organized approach to story writing the exercises and thought processes introduced as groundwork come across as stimulating rather than tedious and may serve to hone analytical skills as well as inspire even the most reluctant writers to try their hand Publishers Weekly The Writer's Field Guide to the Craft of Fiction Michael Noll,2018-02-27 The Writers Field Guide to the Craft of Fiction offers a refreshing approach to the craft of fiction writing It takes a single page from forty contemporary novels and short stories identifies techniques used by the writers and presents approachable exercises and prompts that allow anyone to put those techniques to immediate use in their own work Encompassing everything from micro how to write pretty to macro how to move through time space and even how to put all together on page one this a field guide for anyone who wants to start writing now or get some shiny new gear for their fiction toolbox
