The Power of Identity and Ideology in Language Learning Peter I. De Costa, 2016-05-09 This critical ethnographic school based case study offers insights on the interaction between ideology and the identity development of individual English language learners in Singapore Illustrated by case studies of the language learning experiences of five Asian immigrant students in an English medium school in Singapore the author examines how the immigrant students negotiated a standard English ideology and their discursive positioning over the course of the school year Specifically the study traces how the prevailing standard English ideology interacted in highly complex ways with their being positioned as high academic achievers to ultimately influence their learning of English This potent combination of language ideologies and circulating ideologies created a designer student immigration complex By framing this situation as a complex the study problematizes the power of ideologies in shaping the trajectories and identities of language learners (Re)Constructing Memory:

Textbooks, Identity, Nation, and State James H. Williams, Wendy D. Bokhorst-Heng, 2016-07-08 This book engages readers in thirteen conversations presented by authors from around the world regarding the role that textbooks play in helping readers imagine membership in the nation Authors voices come from a variety of contexts some historical some contemporary some providing analyses over time But they all consider the changing portrayal of diversity belonging and exclusion in multiethnic and diverse societies where silenced invisible marginalized members have struggled to make their voices heard and to have their identities incorporated into the national narrative The authors discuss portrayals of past exclusions around religion ethnicity sexual orientation as they look at the shifting boundaries of insider and outsider This book is thus about who we are not only demographically but also in terms of the past especially how and whether we teach discredited pasts through textbooks The concluding chapters provides ways forward in thinking about what can be done to promote curricula that are more inclusive critical and positively bonding in increasingly larger and more inclusive contexts The Colonial Past in History Textbooks - Historical and Social Psychological Perspectives Karel Van Nieuwenhuysse, Joaquim Pires Valentim, 2018-05-21 This book analyzes how colonial history is depicted in post war textbooks worldwide from the mid 19th century to the 1960s 70s It uses an interdisciplinary approach to explore portrayals in former colonizer and colonized countries focusing on collective memory popular culture and academic knowledge Zimbabwe Books in Print, 1998

Meaning-Focused Materials for Language Learning Marina Bouckaert, Monique Konings, Marjon van Winkelhof, 2019-01-10 This publication is a result of the joint conference held by MATSDA and Fontys University of Applied Sciences the Netherlands in Tilburg in June 2017 MATSDA is an international materials development association founded in 1993 which serves to bring together researchers teachers materials developers and publishers in an effort to improve the effectiveness of language learning materials The 2017 conference centred on issues related to the development of meaning focused materials for language learning and attracted presenters from twenty five countries stretching from Greenland to Brazil These issues are reflected in the chapters in this volume with each one focusing on a different aspect of meaning focused materials and many of them introducing the reader to previously unexplored facets of the theory of meaning focused instruction and its application to materials development The contributions here are of essential value to post graduate students to teachers to materials developers and to researchers They are written to be academically rigorous but at the same time accessible to newcomers to the field and to experienced experts alike

States and the Making of Others Jeanne Bouyat, Amandine Le Bellec, Lucas Puygrenier, 2024-06-17 This volume offers a unique interdisciplinary and comparative perspective on contemporary processes of othering by state institutions in relation to dynamics of racism xenophobia sexism homo transphobia as well as ethnic and class based discriminations It focuses on eight original case studies empirically grounded in various domains of the social state in Southern African and Western European contexts the education and health care systems the regulation of work and of procreation rights and institutions in charge of granting asylum The authors provide key insights on how states produce Others and on how othering contributes in turn to the process of state formation and the politicization of public action
