Make¹ the Ganges flow backward,² yogis, and you will gain
a vision of God.

Take the cotton roll of love in your hand. Twist the axle,
do not let it fall.

With the spindle of knowledge and the spinning wheel of meditation, make things spin backward.³

When Kumbhakaran goes back the way he came, the mystery of Lanka is created.⁴

Now that Ravan the ten-headed is destroyed and Lachhman remains, the unstruck music⁵ sounds.

It is when this ecstatic state is attained through association with the guru that one is called theguru's servant.

Plunge into the circle of nectar⁶ so as to become God.

Different,¹ topsy-turvy times have come, so I have discovered the beloved's secrets.²

Crows have started killing hawks, sparrows have brought down falcons.

Horses graze on rubbish heaps, donkeys are fed fine meal.

There is no affection among kinsfolk, or among senior and junior uncles.³

There is no harmony at all between fathers and sons, or mothers and daughters.⁴

The true get shoved aside, while the false see given seats of honor.

New Approaches to Islam in Film Kristian Petersen,2021-04-26 Many global film industries fail in expanding the role of Muslims on screen Too often they produce a dichotomy between good and bad Muslims limiting the narrative domain to issues of national security war and terrorism Naturally much of the previous scholarship on Muslims in film focused on stereotypes and the politics of representation This collection of essays from an international panel of contributors significantly expands the boundaries of discussion around Muslims in film asking new questions of the archive and magnifying analyses of particular cultural productions The volume includes the exploration of regional cinemas detailed analysis of auteurs and individual films comparison across global cinema and new explorations that have not yet entered the conversation The interdisciplinary collection provides an examination of the multiple roles Islam plays in film and the various ways Muslims are depicted Across the chapters key intersecting themes arise that push the limits of how we currently approach issues of Muslims in cinema and ventures to lead us in new directions for future scholarship This book adds new depth to the matrix of previous scholarship by revisiting methodological structures and sources as well as exploring new visual geographies transnational circuits and approaches It reframes the presiding scholarly conventions in five novel trajectories considering new sources exploring new communities probing new perspectives charting new theoretical directions and offering new ways of understanding conflict in cinema As such it will be of great use to scholars working in Islamic Studies Film Studies Religious Studies and Media

Oral Literary Worlds Sara Marzagora,Francesca Orsini,2025-01-31 The discipline of world literature has traditionally focused on written literatures particularly the novel with little emphasis placed on the unwritten verbal arts despite the significance of oral literary expressions around the world in the past as in the present This volume redresses this gap by putting the discipline of world literature into dialogue with scholarship on orature and folklore It asks what does world literature look like if we start from orature from oral texts and utterances and from the performances and audiences that support it Featuring contributions from an international array of scholars Oral Literary Worlds explores oral traditions from three multilingual regions the Maghreb East Africa and South Asia Essays discuss a variety of vernacular genres from Swahili tumbuizo to Na o folk songs shedding light on less studied forms of vernacular oral production Collectively the contributions critique the characterisation of oral traditions as static and pre modern and underscore the contemporary relevance of orature to cultural and political discourse Oral Literary Worlds offers a timely and accessible perspective on world literature through the lens of orature moving away from traditional hierarchies and dichotomies that have characterised previous scholarship It aims to open up new ways of thinking through local and transnational textual circulation literary power dynamics the interaction between textuality and audiences and aesthetic philosophies This volume will be an invaluable resource for scholars of world literature folklore and performance studies and will further interest teachers and students of popular culture literature of dissent and music Sufism East and West Jamal Malik, Saeed Zarrabi-Zadeh, 2019-07-15 In Sufism East and West the contributors investigate the redirection and dynamics of Sufism in the modern era specifically from the perspective of global cross cultural exchange Edited by Jamal Malik and Saeed Zarrabi Zadeh the book explores the role of mystical Islam in the complex interchange and fluidity in the resonance spaces of East and West The volume challenges the enduring Orientalist binary coding of East versus West and argues instead for a more mutual process of cultural plaiting and shared tradition By highlighting amendments adaptations and expansions of Sufi semantics during the last centuries it also questions the persistent perception of Sufism in its post classical epoch as a corrupt imitation of the legacy of the great Sufis of the past Global Media Arts Education Aaron D. Knochel, Osamu Sahara, 2022-10-22 This edited volume broadens the understanding of the media arts at a global scale bringing together practices and ideas from artists and art educators from around the world Authors explore issues of cultural and social diversity in fields of education media theory and critical theories of education and pedagogy with particular attention to digital technologies impact on visual arts learning Researchers utilize a range of methodologies including participant researcher ethnographies action research case study and design based research These artists and art educators share new research about the pedagogical and theoretical aspects of media arts in educational systems that are facing unprecedented change This volume begins to map why and how experts are working within networked society and playing with digital innovations through media arts education as a critical and creative practice Orthodox Christianity in 21st Century Greece Vasilios N. Makrides, 2016-05-13 One of the predominantly Orthodox countries that has never experienced communism is Greece a country uniquely situated to offer insights about contemporary trends and developments in Orthodox Christianity This volume offers a comprehensive treatment of the role Orthodox Christianity plays at the dawn of the twenty first century Greece from social scientific and cultural historical perspectives This book breaks new ground by examining in depth the multifaceted changes that took place in the relationship between Orthodox Christianity and politics ethnicity gender and popular culture Its intention is two fold on the one hand it aims at revisiting some earlier stereotypes widespread both in academic and others circles about the Greek Orthodox Church its cultural specificity and its social presence such as its alleged intrinsic non pluralistic attitude toward non Orthodox Others On the other hand it attempts to show how this fairly traditional religious system underwent significant changes in recent years affecting its public role and image particularly as it became more and more exposed to the challenges of globalization and multiculturalism Legends and Lyrics from the
