James Turrell A Retrospective:

James Turrell Michael Govan,Christine Y. Kim,2013-01-01 Published in conjunction with the artist s major retrospective exhibition this comprehensive volume traces James Turrell s artistic practice from his years at the Mendota studio in Santa Monica California to his monumental work in progress at Roden Crater an extinct volcano that he has been transforming into a naked eye observatory since 1975 Whether he s projecting three dimensional shapes into the corner of a gallery space or creating immersive environments that allow viewers to better understand their own perception Turrell invites us to go inside and greet the light evoking the meditative practices of his Quaker upbringing A critical figure emerging from Los Angeles s exploding art scene of the 1960s Turrell draws from aviation psychology and astronomy in his art Through ten chapters that survey his various bodies of work enhanced by thoughtful essays and an illuminating interview with the artist this monograph explores every aspect of Turrell s oeuvre to date from his early geometric projections prints and drawings through his installations exploring sensory deprivation and seemingly unmodulated fields of colored light to recent holographic works It also features an in depth look at the Roden Crater Project through models plans photographs and drawings which reveal the power and beauty of his magnum opus and its surrounding landscape This publication also features extraordinary images by Florian Holzherr many of which were specially commissioned and are published here for the first time

James Turrell: A Retrospective ,2023-02 James Turrell National Gallery of Australia,2014 To encounter a work by American artist James Turrell is to enter another world a realm where eye and mind meet The artist engages us the viewers in order to make us witnesses of his focus on nature through scientific means By making us watch and contemplate for extended periods Turrell also makes us part of his artistic practice Included in this publication is an interview with James Turrell by Michael Govan Director of the Los Angeles County Museum of Art an essay by EC Krupp astronomer and Director of the Griffin Observatory Los Angeles as well as discussions on Turrell s works

James Turrell James Turrell,2013 James Turrell Carmen Giménez,Nat Trotman,Arthur Zajonc,2013 Known internationally for his mesmerizing light installations James Turrell has investigated the ways we perceive light colour and space for over forty years His meditative works encourage a state of reflexive vision in which one apprehends the function of one s own senses and the materiality of light For the artist s first exhibition in a New York museum since 1980 Turrell will offer such an experience through a major site specific project for the Guggenheim giving shape to the air and light that occupy the museum s central void Organized in conjunction with the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and the Museum of Fine Arts Houston James Turrell comprises onethird of a major retrospective exhibition spanning the United States during summer 2013 In addition to an extensive plates section featuring Turrell s early works his magnum opus Roden Crater 1976 renderings for his installation for the Guggenheim rotunda and photographs of the installation this exhibition catalogue will include three essays

Robert Irwin, James Turrell Michael Govan,Anna Bernardini,John aBowsher,Giuseppe Panza,2014 The work of two central figures associated with West Coast

contemporary art Robert Irwin and James Turrell is the subject of this breathtaking book that explores collaboration artistic evolution and themes of light space and perception Robert Irwin and James Turrell both originally from Los Angeles are among the most recognized artists to have emerged in the 1960s Irwin has worked in a variety of media while Turrell's work is characterized by his engagement with pure light One of the first champions of Irwin and Turrell's work was Giuseppe Panza who commissioned installations for his 19th century mansion in Northern Italy now an art museum part of FAI Fondo Ambiente Italiano Those installations are the focus of this book the first to pair these two important artists Opening with essays that examine the artists seminal careers and trace their relationship to Panza this volume examines both the original 1973 installations in the villa and recent works made specifically for the building's architecture Irwin's new installation moves from inside to outside through a row of vertical openings and a series of semi-transparent planes and Turrell's large Ganzfeld immerses viewers in radiant colored light Through numerous illustrations and informative text the book shows how both artists have extended and refined their earlier work using the latest technology
