Ecopedagogies Ellen Bayer, Judson Byrd Finley, 2022-09-14 Ecopedagogies showcases a range of creative approaches that educators across multiple disciplines use to empower students to access and engage with nature an increasingly important consideration in a post COVID world in environmental crisis The volume includes chapters written by scholars from the environmental arts and humanities literature writing studies rhetoric music religious studies environmental studies and sustainability sociology and anthropology physical education and outdoor education Each author walks the reader through the details of how their ecopedagogy works identifies potential challenges while also detailing how to address them and explains the rewards to students instructors and more than human nature that they have witnessed through the use of these approaches The contributions represent diverse types of academic institutions offering broad applicability to instructors including community colleges private liberal arts colleges and large state regional public and private universities The book explores a series of key questions about how educators can facilitate meaningful learning experiences with the natural world inside and outside the classroom and it looks at how to foster inclusivity navigate problems with access and explore intersections with environmental justice As a practical guide the book delivers a well provisioned toolbox containing exercises activity guides and assignments for those teaching environmentally focused college courses Global Inequality, 2025-08-28 The book contributes to a better understanding of the relationship between globalisation and transnationalisation and the development of social inequality It addresses this challenge in the current transition to a multi centred world The contributions by international experts from different continents and different disciplines bring together current research on global inequality and social classes covering a wide variety of thematic and spatial foci This also includes a comparison of analyses of inequality in a global context By bringing together analyses of inequalities in income wealth education political influence labor conditions and socio ecological inequalities among others the volume provides deeper insights into the ways in which global social inequalities are changing yet being reproduced in many ways in the 21st century It calls for a discussion on the global dimensions of unequal power relations Authoritarian Neoliberalism Ian Bruff, Cemal Burak Tansel, 2020-06-09 Authoritarian Neoliberalism explores how neoliberal forms of managing capitalism are challenging democratic governance at local national and international levels Identifying a spectrum of policies and practices that seek to reproduce neoliberalism and shield it from popular and democratic contestation contributors provide original case studies that investigate the legal administrative social coercive and corporate dimensions of authoritarian neoliberalism across the global North and South They detail the crisis ridden intertwinement of authoritarian statecraft and neoliberal reforms and trace the transformation of key societal sites in capitalism e g states households workplaces urban spaces through uneven yet cumulative processes of neoliberalization Informed by innovative conceptual and methodological approaches Authoritarian Neoliberalism uncovers how inequalities of power are produced and reproduced in capitalist societies and highlights how alternatives to neoliberalism can be formulated and pursued The book was originally published as a special issue of Globalizations

Geographical Journeys Kevin Cox, 2026-03-09 This book provides concise insights from a diverse range of leading scholars reflecting on how they became geographers representative of the field's diversity It explores the trajectory of their academic career their formative influences interpretive frameworks and divisions within geography and what it means to have a geographic sensibility It asks how geographers came to acquire an interest and how they developed that interest It interrogates the various influences and conditions that helped make them geographers the interpretive frameworks that guided them the role of the serendipitous and how their ideas shifted The various trajectories cover a period of dramatic change in the field and this is registered in the stories told Within that frame and despite the particularity of each contribution there are both similarities and contrasts In these ways the book offers insightful contributions on how geographies and the history of the field get made and for those considering embarking on a career in geography just what to expect

Trans* in College Z Nicolazzo, 2023-07-03 WINNER of 2017 AERA DIVISION J OUTSTANDING PUBLICATION AWARD CHOICE 2017 Outstanding Academic Title This is both a personal book that offers an account of the author's own trans identity and a deeply engaged study of trans collegians that reveals the complexities of trans identities and how these students navigate the trans oppression present throughout society and their institutions create community and resilience and establish meaning and control in a world that assumes binary genders This book is addressed as much to trans students themselves offering them a frame to understand the genders that mark them as different and to address the feelings brought on by the weight of that difference as it is to faculty student affairs professionals and college administrators opening up the implications for the classroom and the wider campus This book not only remedies the paucity of literature on trans college students but does so from a perspective of resiliency and agency Rather than situating trans students as problems requiring accommodation this book problematizes the college environment and frames trans students as resilient individuals capable of participating in supportive communities and kinship networks and of developing strategies to promote their own success Z Nicolazzo provides the reader with a nuanced and illuminating review of the literature on gender and sexuality that sheds light on the multiplicity of potential expressions and outward representations of trans identity as a prelude to the ethnography she conducted with nine trans collegians that richly documents their interactions with and responses to environments ranging from the unwittingly offensive to explicitly antagonistic The book concludes by giving space to the study's participants to themselves share what they want college faculty staff and students to know about their lived experiences Two appendices respectively provide a glossary of vocabulary and terms to address commonly asked questions and a description of the study design offered as guide for others considering working alongside marginalized population in a manner that foregrounds ethics care and reciprocity

Truffles and Trash Kelly Alexander, 2024-10-25 On a fragile planet with spreading food insecurity food waste is a political and ethical problem Examining the collaborative sometimes scrappy institutional and community efforts to recuperate and redistribute food waste in Brussels Belgium Kelly Alexander reveals it is also an opportunity for new forms of sociality Her study plays out across a diverse set of locations including a food bank with ties to the EU a social restaurant serving low cost meals made from supermarket surplus by an emergent immigrant labor force and a social inclusion program in an urban market with a zero food waste pop up caf Alexander argues that these efforts in concert with innovative policy effectively recirculate wasted food to new publics and produce what she terms a spectrum of edibility According to Alexander these models face challenges including reproducing the very power dynamics across race class and citizenship status they seek to circumvent They also mirror the challenges of the everyday operations of the European social welfare state which is increasingly reliant on NGOs to meet provisioning promises Yet she finds that they also move the needle forward to reduce food waste across one city providing an example for major urban centers around the world

Criminal Poisoning: Clinical and Forensic Perspectives Christopher P. Holstege, Thomas Neer, Gregory B. Saathoff, R. Brent Furbee, 2010-03-29 Criminal Poisoning Clinical and Forensic Perspectives offers health care providers investigators and attorneys a comprehensive look at the history employment and ex post facto analysis of criminal poisoning Drawing on the vast expertise of the authors law enforcement agents and physicians with robust experience in the realm of criminal poisoning Criminal Poisoning Clinical and Forensic Perspectives covers the illegal use of poisons to harm people and the methods of detection available to investigators and prosecutors Each chapter covers a specific toxin from acids and herbals to drugs of abuse and includes a case study that explains the diagnostic challenges associated with detecting and prosecuting a criminal poisoning What's more the book delves into who may poison including the psychological factors that motivate someone to kill and who may be a likely victim

The role of carbon markets in preventing dangerous climate change Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Environmental Audit Committee, 2010-02-08 Emissions trading is central to the Government's efforts to reduce greenhouse gas emissions in the UK This inquiry examines the prospects for a global carbon market and the implications of this for further development of the European Union Emissions Trading System EU ETS It reviews the impact and future prospects for the EU ETS in meeting the Government's twin objectives of reducing emissions at lowest cost and setting a carbon price that delivers investment in low carbon technologies The EU ETS has emissions caps set too high to force emitters to make the often costly investment decisions which would reduce emissions The recession has only served to loosen what little constraint the cap provided The carbon price has been too low to encourage the necessary investment in low carbon processes and infrastructure The cap mechanism therefore needs to be significantly tightened This should be supported by cancelling new entrant reserve allowances and auctioning as many allowances as possible rather than giving them away for free with the revenues possibly hypothecated to climate change measures The Government should explore the possible use of a carbon tax It should also encourage more use of allowance auctions with reserve prices more use of incentives for low carbon power generation and emissions performance standards for electricity generation The emphasis should also be on harmonising the approach internationally and on extending effective emissions trading systems The Committee lists 19 conclusions and recommendations
