Sociocultural Studies in Education Richard A Quantz, 2016-01-08 Sociocultural Studies in Education Critical Thinking for Democracy fills a void in the education of educators and citizens in a democracy It explores some of the fundamentals around which disagreements in education arise It presents a process with which those new to these debates can understand often confusing and entwined sets of facts and logics This book leads the reader through some general concepts and intellectual skills that provide the basis for making sense out of the debates around public education in a democracy This book can be seen as a primer on how to read texts about education It acknowledges that good teachers must be not only trained to teach but also educated about education It presents the various themes and currents found within the arguments and narratives that people use to represent public education It assumes that the more those interested in education know about how to see through the rhetoric the better they will be at discerning whose interests are served by which texts Journal of Advanced Composition , 1988

Rejuvenating the Humanities Ray Broadus Browne, Marshall William Fishwick, 1992 The humanities are the human elements in any culture In the West these humanities have ordinarily been anchored in and derivative of Eurocentric culture and have been centered on elite and art related subjects As such they have strengthened and perpetuated elite culture and have been restricted and narrow in their point of view They have enervated the modern humanities which in a democratic society insist on having democratic humanities Democratic humanities demand a new point of view which demands respect for and dignity to the common aspects of culture as well as inclusion of those elements It is time the call went ringing through the land The Old is Sick Please Bring Assistance Rejuvenate the humanities The essays in this volume are Assistance an effort to demonstrate the inalienable need for new subjects in the humanities canon and the value of those subjects as parts of the New Humanities The twenty essays in this effort to bring new vitality to the humanities range through fields familiar in life but unfamiliar in the humanities canon They include leisure folk cultures material culture pornography comics animal rights Black studies travelling and of course the bugbear of academics television The authors include some of the outstanding scholar observers of today all of whom address their subjects in cool dispassionate and convincing reason The subject of revitalizing the Humanities is important indeed This volume will go a long way toward alerting the intellectual community to the desperate need to bring new understanding to the study of the modern humanities Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic, ...
