

Let's talk about TOURISM

Take nothing but photos, leave nothing but footprints.

How often do you go on holiday?
Where have you been?

What are the most popular tourist attractions in your country?

Describe a sightseeing trip you have taken.

Which museums have you visited? Which did you enjoy most? Why?

City trip or beach holiday? Which do you prefer? Why?

What are the benefits of tourism for a country? Explain.

What are possible disadvantages of tourism for a country? Explain.

What kind of jobs are there in the tourism industry? Would like to do one?

What makes a good tour guide? Explain.

For tourists, what is the most convenient way to get around in your country?

Have you flown? Was it short or long haul? Did you suffer from jet lag?

Have you taken a long distance bus trip? How many hours were you on the bus?

Which of the 7 new world wonders do you know? Where are they located?

Which city or country would you like to visit most? Explain why.

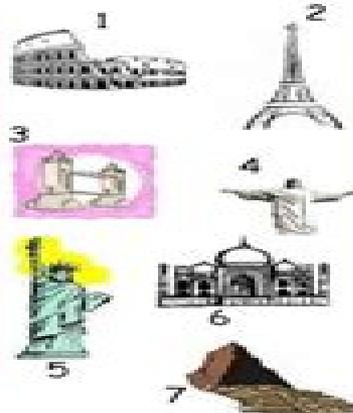

Name some landmarks from your city or country. Describe them.

Which countries are the most popular destinations? Discuss. Do online research.

Which cities or countries have you visited? What's your top 3?

Does your country benefit from tourism? In what way?

Responding to a gap in the field, this is the first book of its kind to explore the implications of research in English for Tourism (EFT) within the field of English for specific purposes. This edited volume brings together teachers and researchers of EFT from diverse national and institutional contexts, focusing on connecting current research in EFT contexts to classroom implications. It considers a wide range of themes related to the teaching of EFT, including theoretical concepts, methodological frameworks, and specific teaching methods. The book explores topics relating to the impact of changing technologies, the need for cultural understanding, and support for writing development, among others. Teaching English for Tourism explores this growing area of English for specific purposes and allows for researchers and practitioners to share their findings in an academic context. This unique book is ideal reading for researchers, postgraduate students, and professionals working in the fields of English language teaching and learning. First Class Trish Stott, Michael Duckworth, Roger Holt, 1992 Essential language practice for tourist industry professionals. Check Your English Vocabulary for Leisure, Travel and Tourism Rawdon Wyatt, 2005 This is a useful title for all non-native English speakers wishing to improve their language skills for these hugely popular and expanding industries. English for International Tourism Peter Strutt, 2013-01-01 This course includes authentic material taken from Dorling Kindersley's
