International business Charles W. L. (10th ed.). 2015 Charles W. L. Hill. / Hill, Optimum currency area. Is a fixed exchange rate regime more suitable than a flexible one? Sofia Roth, 2018-06-04 Seminar paper from the year 2011 in the subject Economics Macro economics general language English abstract This term paper outlines the theory of Optimum Currency Area OCA also known as an Optimal Currency Region OCR It also deals with the question under which conditions it is more suitable to have a fixed exchange rate regime or a flexible exchange rates regime in an OCA The theory of OCA was developed in the early 1960s and deals with mixed complicated issues of international macroeconomics and emerged from the debate on the advantages and disadvantages of fixed versus flexible exchange rate regimes Moreover the theory attempts to answer the question under which circumstances it is beneficiary for a country or region to constitute a common currency area with other countries or region This question was analyzed and contributed by the pioneered work of Mundell 1961 Other contributors at the beginning of this theory were McKinnon 1962 and Kenen 1969 Their cognition were based on founding s by Friedman 1953 and Meade 1957

Global Marketing and Global Human Resources Management - Internationale Unternehmensführung Lena Schmidtman, 2008-04 Seminar paper from the year 2004 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade 1 7 University of Applied Sciences Fulda 3 entries in the bibliography language English abstract 1 Introduction The moving of the business world into an interdependent global economic system is referred to as globalization¹ The principal goal of a globalization strategy is successful economic development in different countries but we see also the influence of the globalization process on social political and culture life One of most difficult barriers for this process is cultural values and norms of civilisations Despite of process of market and production globalization and as of world modernisation that could guide to universal civilisation the countries are different because their evolution process and culture are different Even if there is no reason to think that these differences bring to conflict between civilisations in future it is necessary to know that making contact between various cultural societies demands great effort In following paper we will discuss about a global marketing management a new product development and implementation at the global market and also about global human resources management We will illustrate some aspects to which a manager of an international firm must do attention doing business We look at such elements which constitute a firm s global managing such as brands and their attributes distribution system exactly said differences in distribution system then we look at principal facts challenging a new product development Each product must be viewed in light of how it is perceived by each culture with which it comes in contact An established product in one culture may be considered an innovation in another is critical in planning and developing consumer products for foreign markets If we will discuss about managing functions we will examine also global human resource management
