5 Movement of Labor and Capital Between Countries

1. Under Headlines: Brussels Resumes Policy Push to Share out Refugees across EU. there is a map showing persons seeking asylum in the European Union, as of May 2015. In this question, you will be asked to update these figures to reflect the most recent data available. The source of the data is Eurostat, available at <http://ec.europa.eu/eurostat>. Choose "Data" and "Browse statistics by theme." Under the heading "Population and social conditions," you will find "Asylum and managed migration."

- a. How many asylum seekers are in Germany for the whole of 2015, or in the most recent year available? Also write down the number of asylum seekers in 2015, or the most recent year available, for one other country shown in the Headlines article.

Answer: There were 476,620 asylum applicants in Germany in 2015. For Sweden, there were 162,550 asylum applicants in 2015.

- b. Use the "Data" tab on the left of this webpage to learn more about the applications of asylum seekers and the decisions on those applications. What is the difference between "first instance" decisions and "final decisions" on asylum applications? Write down the numbers of these decisions for 2015, or the most recent year available, in Germany and in the other country that you chose in part (a).

Answer:

First instance decision: Decision (positive and negative) considering applications for international protection as well as the grants of authorizations to stay for humanitarian reasons, including decisions under priority and accelerated procedures taken by administrative or judicial bodies in member state. First instance decisions include decisions granted to persons who are subjects of the Dublin Regulation (Council Regulation 604/2013/EC).

Final decision: Decision taken by administrative or judicial bodies in appeal or in review and which are no longer subject to remedy. The true "final instance" may be, according to the national legislation and administrative procedures, a decision of the highest national court. However, it is not intended that asylum statistics
