White Flag? Michael Ashcroft, Isabel Oakeshott, 2018-10-02 FOREWORD BY GENERAL SIR MIKE JACKSON After the pain of Iraq and Afghanistan it is hard to imagine the UK being drawn into another war Defence chiefs warn that there is a real prospect of future conflict but they have struggled to persuade most politicians to take them seriously Our leaders have concluded there are no votes in defence and have progressively run down the armed forces Today the army is at its smallest since the Napoleonic Wars the RAF is less than half its size twenty five years ago and the Royal Navy will struggle to muster the ships and weapons required to protect our new aircraft carriers Is there really a risk of war Is our military less capable and if so what could that mean for our future White Flag explains what has happened to our armed forces in recent years and asks whether their decline endangers our safety and prosperity Breaking Point Michael O. Slobodchikoff, 2024-11-25 The global world order established following WWII is under attack by both Russia and China and the war in Ukraine is just one front of that war Prisoners of Geography: The Quiz Book Tim Marshall, 2024-11-05 Put your geographical and political knowledge to the test and discover your geography IQ with this engaging collection of 300 questions puzzles word games and maps from New York Times bestselling author Tim Marshall In an ever more complex chaotic and interlinked world Prisoners of Geography is a concise and useful primer on geopolitics Newsweek Ever wonder just how much you really know about the world Now in this interactive quiz book based on the New York Times bestselling Prisoners of Geography you can test yourself on topics every world citizen should know Do you know your continents from your countries your landmarks from your latitudes your mountain ranges from your rivers Covering every area of the world from New Orleans to NATO and from Russia to Rhode Island the book tests your expertise with a variety of questions puzzles word games and maps designed to challenge you while expanding your world knowledge With refreshing insights and his trademark wit Marshall continues to make complex geopolitical strategies that shape the world accessible to millions around the globe From trivia fans to international history buffs this illuminating interactive quiz book is a fun way to challenge your friends and family and discover who is the ultimate expert on world affairs Crossroads Of Globalization, The: A Latin American View Alfredo Toro Hardy, 2018-12-28 Two powerful forces measure their strength by acting upon globalization One of them pushes globalization forward while the other hinders its advance and promotes its decline In which of those directions should Latin America move Uncertainty hinders the region s strategic vision If the future entails re launching of globalization it seems obvious that Latin America should follow along its lines However if globalization were to embark on a declining phase and an endangered future the region would need to look at other options Latin America therefore faces not only a dramatic uncertainty as a result of forces beyond its control but also needs to anticipate unforeseen events to the best of its abilities and react to or act upon them Strategic reflection becomes imperative to manage both uncertainty and the possibility of rapid change This exercise in strategic reflection implies an immersion in fraught international surroundings analyzing the forces that push for and against globalization trying to measure their respective strength convergence capacity and potential impact At the same time it requires looking into the flaws weaknesses and contradictions of such forces With these elements in hand it will be easier to envisage where the trends are leading to and by extension where Latin America may end up standing and which goals it should follow Prisoners of Geography Tim Marshall,2021-11-30 For curious children ages 7 15 Prisoners of Geography has lots to fascinate The Wall Street Journal The secret world history written in the mountains rivers and seas that shape every country s politics economy and international relations and our own lives is revealed in this illustrated young readers edition of Prisoners of Geography the million copy international bestseller History is a story and it s impossible to tell the whole tale without understanding the setting In this eye opening illustrated edition of the international bestseller Prisoners of Geography you ll learn to spot connections between geography and world affairs in ways you never noticed before How did the US s rivers help it become a superpower Why are harsh cold and swampy Siberia and the Russian Far East two of that country s most prized regions How come Japan prefers to trade along the coasts instead of across its land What do the Himalayas have to do with war With colorful maps that capture every continent and region plus hundreds of illustrations that illuminate how our surroundings shape us this one of a kind atlas will inspire curious minds of all ages

Ending Africa's Energy Deficit and the Law Yinka Omorogbe,Ada Ordor,2018-02-22 With the inclusion of access to energy in the sustainable development goals the role of energy to human existence was finally recognized Yet in Africa this achievement is far from realized Omorogbe and Ordor bring together experts in their fields to ask what is stalling progress examining problems from institutions catering to vested interests at the continent s expense to a need to develop vigorous financial and fiscal frameworks The ramifications and complications of energy law are labyrinthine this volume discusses how energy deficits can burden disabled people women and children in excess of their more fortunate counterparts as well as considering environmental issues including the delicate balance between the necessity of water for drinking and cleaning and the use of water in industrial processes A pivotal work of scholarship the book poses pressing questions for energy law and international human rights The Age of Walls Tim Marshall,2018-10-09 Tim Marshall the New York Times bestselling author of Prisoners of Geography offers a readable primer to many of the biggest problems facing the world Daily Express UK by examining the borders walls and boundaries that divide countries and their populations The globe has always been a world of walls from the Great Wall of China to Hadrian s Wall to the Berlin Wall But a new age of isolationism and economic nationalism is upon us visible in Trump s obsession with building a wall on the Mexico border in Britain s Brexit vote and in many other places as well China has the great Firewall holding back Western culture Europe s countries are walling themselves against immigrants terrorism and currency issues South Africa has heavily gated communities and massive walls or fences separate people in the Middle East Korea Sudan India and other places around the world In fact more than a third of the world s nation states have barriers along their borders Understanding what is behind these divisions is essential to understanding much of what's going on in the world today. Written in Tim Marshall's brisk inimitable style, The Age of Walls is divided by geographic region. He provides an engaging context that is often missing from political discussion and draws on his real-life experiences as a reporter from hotspots around the globe. He examines how walls, borders, and barriers have been shaping our political landscape for hundreds of years, and especially since 2001, and how they figure in the diplomatic relations and geopolitical events of today. Marshall is a skilled explainer of the world as it is, and geography buffs will be pleased by his latest. Kirkus Reviews: Accomplished, well-researched, and pacy. The Age of Walls is for anyone who wants to look beyond the headlines and explore the context of some of the biggest challenges facing the world today. It is a fascinating and fast read. City AM UK. Red Flags George Magnus, 2018-10-23. A trusted economic commentator provides a penetrating account of the threats to China's continued economic rise. Under President Xi Jinping, China has become a large and confident power both at home and abroad, but the country also faces serious challenges. In this critical take on China's future, economist George Magnus explores four key traps that China must confront and overcome in order to thrive: debt, middle income, the Renminbi, and an aging population. Looking at the political direction President Xi Jinping is taking, Magnus argues that Xi's authoritarian and repressive philosophy is ultimately not compatible with the country's economic aspirations. Thorough and well-researched, the book also investigates the potential for conflicts over trade, China's evolving relationship with Trump, and the country's attempt to win influence and control in Eurasia through the Belt and Road initiative. Worth Dying for Tim Marshall, 2017. An engagingly written, veritable page-turner. Whether the topic is ethnic identity, Japanese imperialism, Panamanian shipping law, or the defeat of Nazism, flags speak volumes about our human condition. Lawrence Joffe, Jewish Chronicle. A fascinating tour of the world's ensigns, their histories, and meanings, a sobering lesson in just how silly we human beings can be. Daily Mail. Insightful and entertaining, a truly fascinating book that feels all the more considered and urgent in today's world of Brexit, Trump, China, and ISIS. Dan Lewis, Wanderlust magazine. For thousands of years, flags have represented our hopes and dreams. In nine chapters covering the USA, UK, Europe, Middle East, Asia, Africa, Latin America, international flags, and flags of terror, Tim Marshall draws on more than twenty-five years of global reporting experience to reveal the histories, the power, and the politics of the symbols that unite us and divide us. Shadowplay: Behind the Lines and Under Fire Tim Marshall, 2019-08. The last of the devastating series of conflicts resulting from the breakup of Yugoslavia in the early 1990s, the Kosovo War saw more than 13,500 fatalities, with reports of atrocities amid controversial intervention and bombing by NATO. Twenty years have passed since the war's end on 11 June 1999, yet Kosovo's status remains uncertain, and questions remain about the possibility of future conflict on European soil. Tim Marshall, then diplomatic editor at Sky News, was on the ground covering the war. This is his captivating account of how events unfolded, exploring the inside story of the way MI6 and the CIA helped the Serbian people to overthrow Slobodan Milosevic, the president of Yugoslavia. It is also a thrilling journalistic memoir revealing key strategic insights that went on to shape the ideas behind the million-copy international and no 1 Sunday Times bestseller Prisoners of Geography Drawing on personal experience eyewitness accounts and interviews with intelligence officials from five countries this is the definitive account of one of the major events in recent geopolitical history the repercussions of which continue to be felt today Divided Tim Marshall,2018 New from the No 1 Sunday Times We feel more divided than ever This riveting analysis tells you why Walls are going up Nationalism and identity politics are on the rise once more Thousands of miles of fences and barriers have been erected in the past ten years and they are redefining our political landscape There are many reasons why we erect walls because we are divided in many ways wealth race religion politics In Europe the ruptures of the past decade threaten not only European unity but in some countries liberal democracy itself In China the Party s need to contain the divisions wrought by capitalism will define the nation s future In the USA the rationale for the Mexican border wall taps into the fear that the USA will no longer be a white majority country in the course of this century Understanding what has divided us past and present is essential to understanding much of what s going on in the world today Covering China the USA Israel and Palestine the Middle East the Indian Subcontinent Africa Europe and the UK bestselling author Tim Marshall presents a gripping and unflinching analysis of the fault lines that will shape our world for years to come Summary of Tim Marshall's The Power of Geography Everest Media,2022-03-21T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 Australia was originally an island but it became a continent when it broke off from Antarctica 35 million years ago It is currently on a collision course with Indonesia but inhabitants of both countries should not be alarmed as it is moving at seven centimetres a year 2 Australia is a large country that is home to many different types of terrain and climates The majority of it is uninhabitable and it was not until humans showed up that the Outback was populated 3 The first recorded landing in Australia was in 1606 when Willem Janszoon and the crew of the Dutch sailing ship Duyfken went ashore in northern Australia They thought they were on the island of New Guinea and after a hostile encounter with locals they soon departed 4 The first Europeans to land in Australia were the crew of the HMS Endeavour in 1788 They were there to establish a penal colony and the strategic implications of planting the British flag 17 000 kilometers from the center of the empire were considered  ,2016-08-10
