A Study of >Tawriya< in the Qur'an Luca Rizzo, 2025-12-01 How did premodern Muslim scholars of rhetoric and exegesis interpret ambiguous verses in the Qur an particularly those suggesting anthropomorphism This book explores how the rhetorical device tawriya or double entendre came to serve as a hermeneutical tool for resolving or accommodating ambiguity in the sacred text Focusing on verses traditionally considered ambiguous muta bih t and long debated by interpreters the study distinguishes between those not related to the nature of

God and those concerning divine attributes Through a detailed analysis of premodern exegetical and theological sources supported by an in depth study of rhetorical treatises it traces the evolution of exegetical and rhetorical thought The volume also demonstrates how tawriya was used to reconcile doctrinal concerns and to legitimise textual ambiguity Ultimately the study argues that tawriya reveals the centrality of the reader s role in constructing meaning shedding light on the dynamic relationship between rhetoric theology and hermeneutics in Islamic intellectual history and Qur anic exegesis This work is relevant for scholars of Islamic studies rhetoric and religious hermeneutics Approaches to Internet Pragmatics Chaoqun Xie,Francisco Yus,Hartmut Haberland,2021-04-15 Internet mediated communication is pervasive nowadays in an age in which many people shy away from physical settings and often rely instead on social media and messaging apps for their everyday communicative needs Since pragmatics deals with communication in context and how more gets communicated than is said or typed applications of this linguistic perspective to internet communication under the umbrella label of internet pragmatics are not only welcome but necessary The volume covers straightforward applications of pragmatic phenomena to internet interactions as happens with speech acts and contextualization and internet specific kinds of communication such as the one taking place on WhatsApp WeChat and Twitter This collection also addresses the role of emoticons and emoji in typed text dialogues and the importance of physical place in internet interactions exhibiting an interplay of online offline environments as is the case in the role of place in locative media and in broader place related communication as in migration
