these connections as students drive toward communicative and cultural confidence and proficiency in the introductory classroom. The En avant program is built around the following distinctive principles:

- Focused approach: En avant concentrates on what introductory French students can be reasonably expected to learn, allowing for sustained engagement with the material that respects the natural process of language acquisition.
- A reduced grammar scope: leaves more time for the systematic review and recycling of vocabulary and grammar required for students to achieve mastery of first-year skills.
- Grammar topics: that were deemed of secondary importance by our many reviewers are presented in the Par la suite section at the end of the book to allow maximum flexibility for those instructors who wish to extend their coverage of the grammar.
- Fortifying the acquisition process: at every turn is LearnSmart™ evolutionary adaptive technology that builds a learning experience unique to each student's individual needs. Through LearnSmart, students engage in targeted vocabulary and grammar practice so they are prepared to come to class ready to communicate.
- Active learning: En avant gives students the opportunity to explore language and culture through interactive activities that keep them focused and engaged.
- Vocabulary and grammar in En avant: is taught using an active learning approach, nudging students to discover new vocabulary and language rules through a carefully balanced mix of inductive and explicit presentations and hands-on learning in the Communication en direct video section that begins each chapter, as well as in the Vocabulaire interactif and Grammaire interactive presentations.
- Integration of culture: Building on the active learning theme, students develop and apply critical thinking skills in their analysis of the cultural trends and cultural products that are richly presented in En avant.
- The Communication en direct videos: allow students to not only hear the language but to observe how the language is spoken in a cultural context.

Diversity and Decolonization in French Studies Siham Bouamer, Loïc Bourdeau, 2022-04-04. This edited volume presents new and original approaches to teaching the French foreign language curriculum, reconceptualizing the French classroom through a more inclusive lens. The volume engages with a broad range of scholars to facilitate an understanding of the process of French decolonization as well as its reverberations into the postcolonial era and a deeper engagement with the global interconnectedness of these processes. Chapters in Part I revisit the concept of the francophonie, decenter the field from metropolitan or hexagonal and white France, and underline how current teaching materials reproduce epistemic and colonial violence. Part II adopts an intersectional approach to address topics of gender inclusivity, trans affirming teaching, queer materials, and ableism. Finally, Part III presents new ways to transform the discipline by affirming our commitment to social justice and making sure that our classrooms are representative of our students, enriching diversity.
