Imitating Abraham ,2025-03-27 Imitating Abraham provides exciting glimpses into the reception history of the character Abraham in Judaism Christianity and Islam illuminating the manifold ways in which interpreters draw upon his legacy to authorize practices like sacrifice circumcision hospitality feasting prayer and personal and corporate piety Abraham holds surprises his name is used in magical amulets some published here for the first time to ward off demons protect cattle from illness and even to round up runaway slaves Researchers students and all interested in Biblical Jewish Christian and Islamic Studies as well as ritual and exemplarity will want to read this book Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired British Library,1918 Jesus the Magician Smith, Morton,2014-08-27 A twentieth century classic uncannily smart incredibly learned from the foreword by Bart Ehrman This book challenges traditional Christian teaching about Jesus While his followers may have seen him as a man from heaven preaching the good news and working miracles Smith asserts that the truth about Jesus is more interesting and rather unsettling The real Jesus only barely glimpsed because of a campaign of disinformation obfuscation and censorship by religious authorities was not Jesus the Son of God In actuality he was Jesus the Magician Smith marshals all the available evidence including but not limited to the Gospels He succeeds in describing just what was said of Jesus by outsiders those who did not believe him He deals in fascinating detail with the inevitable questions What was the nature of magic What did people at that time mean by the term magician Who were the other magicians and how did their magic compare with Jesus works What facts led to the general assumption that Jesus practiced magic And most important was that assumption correct The ramifications of Jesus the Magician give new meaning to the word controversial This book recovers a vision of Jesus that two thousand years of suppression and polemic could not erase And what may be the central point of the debate Jesus the Magician strips away the myths and legends that have obscured Jesus the man who lived

Christianity spread along the Silk Road together with Aramaic culture and liturgy. Because of this the staging posts of Christian merchants along the trade routes grew into missionary centers. Thus the mission of the Church of the East stretched from Persia to Arabia and India and from the Oxus River to the Chinese shores. This book contains a collection of studies on the Church of the East in its historical setting. It sheds new light on this subject from various perspectives and academic disciplines providing fresh insights into the rich heritage of Syriac Christianity. The first in a four volume series of Meyer Schapiro's Selected Papers future volumes will range from Modern Art to Early Christian and Byzantine art forms and will include papers on the Theory and Philosophy of Art this publication embodies a number of Professor Schapiro's seminal studies of Romanesque sculptures together with articles on manuscript art linked to those sculptures. Of particular relevance is the richly illustrated study of the sculptures of the cloister and portal in the French abbey of Moissac which was one of the first approaches to those master works from an artistic point of view. This classic analysis is complemented by a consideration of Mozarabic and Romanesque styles in manuscript paintings and some sculptures from the Castilian abbey of Silos a study of artistic innovation as an historical
