WebDoctor Richard M. Sharp,Vicki F. Sharp,1998 Originally published in 1973

Black Players was the first book to do a thorough examination of the urban pimp culture. Social anthropologists Richard and Christina Milner were allowed access to the secretive and controversial world of pimps and prostitutes. Black Player guides the reader through every aspect of this unfamiliar world, allowing the Players to describe themselves and the rules of the game in their own words. The Milners interviewed many of the top pimps in the Bay area and other parts of the country during the late 60s to early 70s. There is even a rare interview with legendary pimp turned author Iceberg Slim in this book. Out of this experience has come one of the most fascinating journeys into a secret culture ever written.

Consumer Health Information Source Book Alan Rees, 2000-01-27. How can an award-winning source book that helps consumers find health information be improved? Health expert Alan Rees has done just that in his sixth edition by providing practical advice on using the Internet, tips on where to find Spanish language health pamphlets and recommendations on what's most important in the world of alternative medicine. The sixth edition provides users with an annotated guide to health-related resources: hotlines, newsletters, pamphlets, Web sites, CD-ROMs, magazines, books, and more. Readers are given a description on each resource and how to best use it.

The British Medical Association Complete Family Health Guide Tony Smith, 2000. A medical encyclopaedia which features information on screening, drug treatments, and surgery, with symptom charts to aid in the interpretation of symptoms. There is also an explanation of medical genetics and what they mean for your health, and 2000 medical websites on every disorder.

The Medical Library Association Encyclopedic Guide to Searching and Finding Health Information on the Web: Diseases and Disorders P. F. Anderson, Nancy J. Allee, 2004. Annotation: Searching for health information may be the most important type of search a librarian performs in a day. Instead of starting a health care search with a blank computer screen or simply accessing ordinary information available most anywhere on the Web, start with help from the prestigious Medical Library Association. Each entry will show you how an experienced health sciences librarian would approach the question. You can begin a truly valuable search knowing: Special searching issues, What to ask, Where to start, Supplementary search strategies, Topic profile, Recommended search terms and important sites, Hotline phone numbers, FAQs, Publications on the Internet, Professional organizations, Patient support organizations and discussion groups, Best One Stop Shops. Finally, there's one ready reference source written by librarians to help their colleagues that covers every important aspect of the question you or your user want to answer.
