Authenticity At McGraw Hill we have conducted thousands of hours of research into student and instructor behavior and needs Over and over French instructors stressed they want their students to be inspired by classroom interactions and by the content of assigned materials Only then can they experience language learning in ways that build confidence A final desire is for students to engage with linguistically and culturally authentic materials The intersection of these key themes provides the path to the ultimate goal that instructors share a foundation in communicative competence McGraw Hill is proud to present En avant a program that breaks the mold of traditional French programs Its integrated approach to authentic culture individualized learning plans and systematic recycling inspires students and gives them the confidence to develop their toward communicative and cultural confidence and proficiency in the introductory classroom The En avant program is built around the following distinctive principles Focused approach En avant concentrates on what introductory French students can be reasonably expected to learn allowing for sustained engagement with the material that respects the natural process of language acquisition A reduced grammar scope leaves more time for the systematic review and recycling of vocabulary and importance by our many reviewers are presented in the Par la suite section at the end of the book to allow maximum flexibility for those instructors who wish to extend their coverage of the grammar Fortifying the acquisition process at every chapter as well as in the Vocabulaire interactif and Grammaire interactive presentations Integration of culture Building on the active learning theme students develop and apply critical thinking skills in their analysis of the cultural trends and cultural products that are richly presented in En avant The Communication en direct videos allow students to not only hear the language but to observe how the language is spoken in a cultural context Vocabulary and grammar are often presented or practiced within a cultural context and throughout each chapter students are encouraged to make cross cultural comparisons by responding to the thought provoking questions such as those posed in the new Et chez vous feature that accompanies the Chez les Français and Chez les Francophones texts The culminating section of the chapter Culture en direct presents culture at the discourse level through cultural video presentations authentic texts feature film clips and songs all related to the chapter theme The stunning Salut de video segments shot in Paris Montréal Louisiana Tunisia and Tahiti also provide windows into the diverse cultures of the Francophone world Mobile Tools for Digital Success Connect French McGraw Hill's digital teaching and learning environment is now mobile enabled for tablets allowing students to engage in their course material via the devices they use every day The digital tools available in the Connect French platform facilitate student progress by providing extensive opportunities to practice and hone their developing skills These learning opportunities include online communicative activities instant feedback peer editing writing tools sophisticated reporting and a complete e book with embedded audio video and grammar tutorials Connect is the only integrated learning system that empowers students by continuously adapting to deliver precisely what they need when they need it and how they need it so that your class time is more engaging and effective Connect French including but not limited to the workbook lab manual LearnSmart the video program and chat tools is sold separately and does not come automatically with the purchase of the textbook
