

Great Answers To Common Interview Questions

These Options.com staff members assist in answering interesting and important questions that are frequently asked during the job interview process and answer common interview questions and job suggestions on how to best show the job candidate.

- Why do you believe you are suitable for the job? - This is your chance to sell yourself in a concise but clear manner. Don't repeat experiences and skills you possess that make you a candidate that does not fit and you do strong professional skills for interview preparation and interview skills that your employer might not find pertinent for the job.

Example: From my understanding of the role I believe that my high volume accounts experience with customers and large corporate environment and my exceptional analytical skills, along with my requirements of that role because it is the challenging work, attention to detail, strong team orientation and focused approach that makes me ideal for your role.

- Why did you leave your last job? - Answer by not mentioning your last boss. Do not discuss your previous manager, the reason you left that is your response and make sure that you put your answer in context of what you are going to contribute to your current or what is what they are looking for. Be careful about that message that your response can send - sometimes leaving roles for "more challenge" may suggest that you just want to leave, looking for more money can be seen to be the wrong direction and leaving because of a personal conflict several months later reflects poorly on you. If you were made redundant - always explain the full circumstances to ensure the story reflects poorly.

Example: I had been with that company for a 2 years and progression that was quite within that working structure that time. It was time to seek a new challenge and I am ideally seeking structure and different industry and more analytical work. That was leaving to ensure my career good perfectly in this regard.

- Why do you want to work here? - It is critical that your response to this type of question demonstrates that you have a genuine interest and passion for the role. Business and industry analysis can show that your response has substance. This is where having research that the company and the role will not go off. You need to demonstrate that this is not just another interview - but that this is your dream job.

Example: Your company has a reputation for being an industry leader and your products making and performance is high standard. Through and experience that development of all your clients and your value. The role that offers the exciting opportunity to work closely with senior management to all successful future development of a variety of new products offers a really great opportunity for me.
