The Normal Chaos Of Love:

The Normal Chaos of Love Ulrich Beck, Elisabeth Beck-Gernsheim, 1995-04-10 This is a brilliant study of the nature of love in modern society Ulrich Beck and Elisabeth Beck Gernsheim argue that the nature of love is changing fundamentally creating opportunities for democracy or chaos in personal life Sociology Anthony Giddens, Philip W. Sutton, 2010 Whilst particularly useful as a companion to the sixth edition of Giddens's Sociology the reader is designed for use independently or alongside other textbooks The Making of Romantic Love William M. Reddy, 2012-08-30 Here Reddy illuminates the birth of a cultural movement that managed to regulate selfish desire and render it innocent or innocent enough Reddy strikes out from this historical moment on an exploration of love contrasting the medieval development of romantic love in Europe with contemporaneous eastern traditions in Bengal Distant Love Ulrich Beck, Elisabeth Beck-Gernsheim, 2013-12-18 Love and family life in the global age grandparents in Salonika and their grandson in London speak together every evening via Skype A U S citizen and her Swiss husband fret over large telephone bills and high travel costs A European couple can finally have a baby with the help of an Indian surrogate mother In their new book Ulrich Beck and Elisabeth Beck Gernsheim investigate all types of long distance relationships marriages and families that stretch across countries continents and cultures These long distance relationships comprise so many different forms of what they call world families by which they mean love and intimate relationships between individuals living in or coming from different countries or continents In all their various forms these world families share one feature in common they are the focal point in which different aspects of the globalized world become embodied in the personal lives of individuals Whether they like it or not lovers and relatives in these families find themselves confronting the world in the inner space of their own lives The conflicts between the developed and developing worlds come to the surface in world families they acquire faces and names creating confusion surprise anger joy pleasure and pain at the heart of everyday life This path breaking book will appeal to a wide readership interested in the changing character of love in our times Looking for Love in the Legal Discourse of Marriage Renata Grossi, 2014-09-01 This book examines the in visibility of romantic love in the legal discourse surrounding modern Australian marriage It looks at how romantic love has become a core part of modernity and a dominant part of the Western marriage discourse and considers how the ideologies of romantic love are or are not replicated in the legal meaning of marriage This examination raises two key issues If love has become central to people's understanding of marriage then it is important for the legitimacy of law that love is reflected in both the content and application of the law More fundamentally it requires us to reconsider how we understand law and to ask whether it is engaged with emotions or separate from them Along the way this book also considers the meaning of love itself in contemporary society and asks whether love is a radical force capable of breaking down conservative meanings embedded in institutions like marriage or whether it simply mirrors them This book will be of interest to everyone working on love marriage and sexuality in the disciplines of law sociology and philosophy Human Rights

Law and Personal Identity Jill Marshall, 2014-06-20 This book explores the role human rights law plays in the formation and protection of our personal identities Drawing from a range of disciplines Jill Marshall examines how human rights law includes and excludes specific types of identity which feed into moral norms of human freedom and human dignity and their translation into legal rights The book takes on a three part structure Part I traces the definition of identity and follows the evolution of and protects a right to personal identity and personality within human rights law It specifically examines the development of a right to personal identity as property the inter subjective nature of identity and the intercession of power and inequality Part II evaluates past and contemporary attempts to describe the core of personal identity including theories concerning the soul the rational mind and the growing influence of neuroscience and genetics in explaining what it means to be human It also explores the inter relation and conflict between universal principles and culturally specific rights Part III focuses on issues and case law that can be interpreted as allowing self determination Marshall argues that while in an age of individual identity people are increasingly obliged to live in conformed ways pushing out identities that do not fit with what is acceptable Drawing on feminist theory the book concludes by arguing how human rights law would be better interpreted as a force to enable respect for human dignity and freedom interpreted as empowerment and self determination whilst acknowledging our inter subjective identities In drawing on socio legal philosophical biological and feminist outlooks this book is truly interdisciplinary and will be of great interest and use to scholars and students of human rights law legal and social theory gender and cultural studies

Suffer Love Ashley Herring Blake, 2016-05-03 Sam Bennett falls for Hadley St Clair before he knows her last name When Sam finds out she is that St Clair daughter of the man who destroyed Sam s family he has a choice follow his heart or tell the truth about the scandal that links their families Funny and passionate Suffer Love is a story about first love family dysfunction and the fickle hand of fate

Making Multiracials Kimberly McClain DaCosta, 2007 Making Multiracials explains how a social movement emerged around mixed race identity in the 1990s and how it made multiracial a recognizable racial category in the United States

Biography and Social Exclusion in Europe Prue Chamberlayne, Michael Rustin, Tom Wengraf, 2002 Based on 250 life story interviews in seven European Union countries Biography and social exclusion in Europe analyses personal struggles against social exclusion to illuminate local milieus and changing welfare regimes and contexts points to challenging new agendas for European politics and welfare beyond the rhetoric of communitarianism and the New Deal vividly illustrates the lived experience and environmental complexity working for and against structural processes of social exclusion refashions the interpretive tradition as a teaching and research tool linking macro and micro realities
