Influence of the 9/11 novel on Muslim Writing Matthias Dickert,2017-10-11 Scientific Essay from the year 2017 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz language English abstract Since 9 11 many Muslims struggle with their identity and are exposed to xenophobia violence vicious defamation harassment or displacement In short the notion Muslim in relation to that day has become a stigma It is against this background and the post traumatic aftermath of September 11 2001 where many novelists disposing of a Muslim background wrote their novels The logical consequence from this was that Muslim writing as such has become more complex stressing the standpoints of hearer and teller as elements of distortion Interesting though is the fact that some novels dealing with Islam and Muslim characters have taken up and used the Oriental stereotypes where Muslims are according to Said seen as either oil suppliers or potential terrorists For a long time Muslim characters in literature have been connected to this negative image which Said also labels as other and Spivak as subaltern The hybrid in which many Muslim characters are often set is also still equated with the exotic thus ignoring the energy of Bhabha s term and its positive realizations in fiction It is therefore one aim of this essay to throw light on this matter and to shortly reflect the present influence of 9 11 on Muslim writing
