The Invisible Web, 1991-12-01 Bringing new focus to the subject THE INVISIBLE WEB investigates the family from a feminist perspective Using the lens of gender connections between mothers and daughters fathers and daughters mothers and sons and husbands and wives are analyzed and given new meaning The authors evaluate and redefine family transitions such as divorce single parent and female headed households and remarried couples who are attempting to integrate their respective children with ex spouses and complicated networks of extended kin They also reexamine traditional and emerging roles for women in their early middle and later years Written in an engaging format each chapter features an in depth analysis of how gender shapes the relationship in question This discussion is followed by fascinating vignettes of actual cases from each of the four authors whose approaches reflect different orientations to therapy Based on the work of the Women's Project in Family Therapy which won the 1986 AFTA Award for Distinguished Contribution to Family Therapy this groundbreaking work is an excellent text for courses in family therapy and women's studies an invaluable guide for mental health practitioners and an insightful read for anyone who wishes to explore the invisible web of gender patterns in families

Families Maureen Baker, Bettina Bradbury, 2001
Overview 007 086413 2 Softcover 448 pp Copyright 2001 11 2000 41 95 Revised to ensure up to date coverage of key issues in accordance with its high academic reputation while introducing a new reader friendly design Families Changing Trends in Canada has always been a widely adopted text for the first course in Sociology of the Family Maureen Baker's aim as general editor has been to create a Canadian textbook in family studies for post secondary students which incorporates an interdisciplinary historical comparative and mainly structural perspective but which is inclusive of various theoretical perspectives The newly added pedagogical elements will engage students taking the course at universities and community colleges The fourth edition of Families reflects the evolving nature of the family by paying increased attention to gay lesbian and multicultural issues It includes updated statistics and discussion of recent legal reforms providing students with background on three censuses and other demographic surveys new studies in social history recent legal debate and the growing focus on cultural variations in families The fourth edition also offers new theoretical approaches that incorporate poststructuralist and feminist theory in order to help students understand how family gender relations and personal life have been influenced by post industrial or post modern society Most contributors are sociologists but several have formal qualifications or a research background in psychology education women's studies history and social policy The result is a text that shows that family life in Canada as elsewhere is in a constant state of change

The Shoshone-Bannocks John W. Heaton, 2005 Even in the face of internal disputes between cattlemen and hay cutters the people of Fort Hall found innovative ways such as participation in new religious experiences cultural redefinition and regular community gatherings to manage the contradictions that stemmed from market integration Heaton tells how the Shoshone Bannocks made a meaningful choice between productive commerce and a more typical reliance on subsistence and wage labor Their leaders found new ways to unite disparate bands and kin groups to resist attempts to open reservation land to exploitation by non Indians and through careful land cessions they were able to obtain the capital needed to develop reservation resources themselves
