

In Memoriam By Alfred, Lord Tennyson

I envy not in any moods
The captive void of noble rage,
The linnet born within the cage,
That never knew the summer woods:

I envy not the beast that takes
His license in the field of time,
Unfetter'd by the sense of crime,
To whom a conscience never wakes;

Nor, what may count itself as blest,
The heart that never plighted troth
But stagnates in the weeds of sloth;
Nor any want-begotten rest.

I hold it true, whate'er befall;
I feel it, when I sorrow most;
'Tis better to have loved and lost
Than never to have loved at all.

In Memoriam A.h.h. Alfred Lord Tennyson, 2017-03-06 Alfred Tennyson was born on August 6th 1809 in Somersby Lincolnshire the fourth of twelve children Most of Tennyson's early education was under the direction of his father although he did spend four unhappy years at a nearby grammar school He left home in 1827 to join his elder brothers at Trinity College Cambridge more to escape his father than a desire for serious academic work At Trinity he was living for the first time among young men of his own age who knew little of his problems He was delighted to make new friends he was handsome intelligent humorous a gifted impersonator and soon at the center of those interested in poetry and conversation That same year he and his brother Charles published Poems by Two Brothers Although the poems in the book were of teenage quality they attracted the attention of the Apostles a select undergraduate literary club led by Arthur Hallam The Apostles provided Tennyson with friendship and confidence Hallam and Tennyson became the best of friends they toured Europe together in 1830 and again in 1832 Hallam's sudden death in 1833 greatly affected the young poet The long elegy In Memoriam and many of Tennyson's other poems are tributes to Hallam In 1830 Tennyson published Poems Chiefly Lyrical and in 1832 he published a second volume entitled simply Poems Some reviewers condemned these books as affected and obscure Tennyson stung by the reviews would not publish another book for nine years In 1836 he became engaged to Emily Sellwood When he lost his inheritance on a failed investment in 1840 the engagement was cancelled In 1842 however Tennyson's Poems in two volumes was a tremendous critical and popular success In 1850 with the publication of In Memoriam Tennyson's reputation was pre eminent He was also selected as Poet Laureate in succession to Wordsworth and to complete a wonderful year he married Emily Sellwood At the age of 41 Tennyson had established himself as the most popular poet of the Victorian era The money from his poetry at times exceeding 10 000 pounds per year allowed him to purchase a home in the country and to write in relative seclusion His appearance a large and bearded man he regularly wore a cloak and a broad brimmed hat enhanced his notoriety In 1859 Tennyson published the first poems of Idylls of the Kings which sold more than 10 000 copies in a fortnight In 1884 he accepted a peerage becoming Alfred Lord Tennyson On October 6th 1892 an hour or so after midnight surrounded by his family he died at Aldworth It is said that the moonlight was streaming through the window and Tennyson himself was holding open a volume of Shakespeare He was buried in
