African Peacekeeping Training Centres Anne Flaspöler,2018-10-26 Peacekeeping training centres play a crucial role in preparing peacekeepers for their deployment However despite their popularity within the international community as a tool for achieving international security development and state building objectives they have not received a great deal of analysis or academic attention This book provides an in depth analysis of peacekeeping training in Africa tracing how centres have adapted to the operational and normative changes of peace operations over time and raising questions about the expectations attached to these training efforts and their impact The book examines training content and methods in detail exploring the potential of peacekeeping training centres as sites for socialisation and diffusing international norms in an effort to change and shape peacekeepers behaviour The analysis is based on two contrasting case studies selected to show the spectrum of training centres operating in Africa namely the Kofi Annan International Peacekeeping Training Centre KAIPTC in Accra Ghana and the African Centre for the Constructive Resolution of Disputes ACCORD in Durban South Africa At a time when impact is being determined by the number of course attendees this book provides an important critical assessment of training efforts and what they are supposed to achieve It will be of interest to scholars and practitioners within the fields of international security peacekeeping and African development The Conflict Resolution Training Program Prudence B. Kestner, Larry Ray, 2002-01-09 The Conflict Resolution Training Program Participant's Workbook offers both new and seasoned negotiators mediators and arbitrators a step by step approach for learning dispute resolution techniques This hands on workbook is filled with a variety of exercises activities worksheets role plays and other interactive techniques that are readily accessible for learning the skills needed to resolve conflicts Trainers and participants can select the sections of the flexible program that best meet their specific objectives and goals Conflict Management Training Robert M. Schoenhaus, 2001 From the John Holmes Library collection Managing Organizational Conflict Sam Blank, 2020-01-14 Conflict in business and personal relationships is inevitable much of the success of companies depends on how well they respond to it Developing rapport collaboration and cooperation hinges on positive conflict management strategies that stimulate innovation and growth where companies can look for solutions to common issues and needs Conflict management can address dysfunctional outcomes that result in job stress less effective communication and a climate of distrust where working relationships are damaged and job performance reduced Organizations must minimize and resolve internal and external conflicts to remain vibrant and profitable Drawing on examples from a wide range of corporate experiences this volume provides role playing scenarios checklists tables and research studies to help employees managers and owners better comprehend the dynamics of conflict in every interaction FAA Catalog of Training Courses United States. Federal Aviation Administration, 1991 Certification's Impacts on Forests, Stakeholders and Supply Chains, 2001 People like forests they have many emotional and cultural attachments to them They also like forest products and need increasing quantities of them But they often don't like don't understand and don't trust what comes in between forest management which lies at the interface of public services biodiversity watersheds etc and private goods timber food etc Certification was developed to independently verify the quality of forest management to communicate this to market players and so to improve market benefits for the products of good management The growing influence of the Forest Stewardship Council is one of the most striking recent developments in forestry Certification is increasingly common in all continents But has it actually improved forest management Has it created sufficient market incentives Above all has it enabled trust to develop between stakeholders so that they can work together better to build the institutions required for sustainable forest management This book is the result of two years study by IIED and collaborators in several countries it provides evidence for considerable policy and institutional change as a result of certification and the beginnings of change in forest and market practice Conflict Resolution Resource Directory, 2000 Encyclopedia of Conflict Resolution Heidi Burgess, Guy M. Burgess, 1997-11 The Contemporary Legal Issues series addresses a wide variety of current controversial legal topics Each book gives readers a practical understanding of a particular topic as well as sources for further information Each title includes An overview of the topic Approximately 200 comprehensive entries on concepts
