Introduction to Islamic Law Ahmed Akgunduz, 2010-01-01 The world today has become one large village Muslims and non Muslims live side by side and have to learn about one another share commonalities and respect differences At this time more than one and a half billion Muslims live in this village Some of them are pious Muslims trying to live in accordance with Islamic rules whereas others do not while believing that these rules come from God the Qur'an from interpretations of His Messenger the Sunnah or the consensus of Muslim jurists ijm and are at least rules derived via analogy qiyas from the main sources of Islam Most Muslims think along these lines and agree with the above The reader should remember that Muslim individuals should live according to Islamic rules in private but no individual is responsible for implementing Islamic law In any event the need to learn the facts about Islamic law is necessary for Muslims as well as for non Muslims if they live in the same society with Muslims at least in the sense of general information In any event the need to learn the facts about Islamic law is necessary for Muslims as well as for non Muslims if they live in the same society with Muslims at least in the sense of general information We should keep in mind here that only sovereign Muslim states governments have the legal authority to implement Islamic law An individual Muslim has no legal authority or power to implement Islamic law The law of Islam certainly does not say that every Muslim is obliged to implement Islamic law It matters not how efficient and popular that individual may be as a brave warrior or a meticulous planner of unlawful and immoral schemes of hatred terror and destruction Only people who are properly qualified and trained and hold a license from Muslim governmental authorities have the authority to issue fatwas Not every Muslim individual qualifies as a Mufti a jurist consult or scholar of law who has been given a license to issue fatwas For this reason Bediuzzaman says And we know that the fundamental aims of the Qur'an and its essential elements are fourfold divine unity al tawhid prophethood al nubuwwah the resurrection of the dead al hashr and justice al adalah Al Adlah means law He adds in another treatise Let our ulul amr satesmen and political authorities think over implementing these rules This book is divided into eight chapters Chapter I Because of the many misunderstandings that arise some terms related to Islamic Law such as Sharah fiqh q n n urf
