Bliss Peter Carey, 2001 The New Industrial Revolution Peter Marsh, 2012-07-17 The rapid emergence of China and India as prime locations for low cost manufacturing has led some analysts to conclude that manufacturers in the old economies the U S U K Germany and Japan are being edged out of a profitable future But if countries that historically have been at the forefront of events in manufacturing can adapt adroitly opportunities are by no means over says the author of this timely book Peter Marsh explores 250 years in the history of manufacturing then examines the characteristics of the industrial revolution that is taking place right now The driving forces that influence what types of goods are made and who makes them are little understood Marsh observes He discusses the key changes in what is happening in manufacturing today including advances in technology a greater focus on tailor made goods aimed at specific individuals and industry users participation of many more countries in world manufacturing and the growing importance of sustainable forms of production With broad historical sweep and dozens of engaging examples Marsh explains these changes and their import both for consumers making purchase choices and for manufacturers assessing how to participate successfully in the new industrial era

The Oxford Handbook of Silent Cinema Rob King, Charlie Keil, 2024 The Oxford Handbook of Silent Cinema is a collection of new scholarship that investigates the first decades of motion picture history from diverse perspectives and methodologies Featuring over thirty essays by leading scholars in the field the Handbook offers a comprehensive overview of cinema s earliest years while also illuminating how cinema derived strength from competing cultural forms becoming in the process the most influential mass medium of the early twentieth century

Dealing with Mission Drift in Parachurch Agencies Israel K. Kombaté, 2025-01-31 Mission drift is a constant threat to any parachurch organization trying to remain mission true and holistically relevant in this post Christian society Defining it as a phenomenon in which Christian based mission agencies stray from their God given vision and identity towards socio humanitarian objectives this study considers this in light of Jesus s own holistic mission exemplified in Matthew 9 35 38 and Luke 4 18 19 This insightful investigation into seven Christian NGOs and NPOs seeks to reveal the underlying reasons and motivations for moving towards mission drift Presenting an exegetical study of the ministry of Jesus Dr Kombat offers a developed and nuanced understanding of the challenging forces that contribute to mission drift and puts forward tools to minimize its risk A must read for missionaries pastors and leaders in parachurch organizations endeavouring to retain a strong biblically grounded commitment to following holistic mission
