Blues For Mister Charlie:

Blues for Mister Charlie James Baldwin, 1955-04-25 An award winning play from one of America's most brilliant writers about a murder in a small Southern town loosely based on the 1955 killing of Emmett Till A play with fires of fury in its belly tears of anguish in its eyes a roar of protest in its throat The New York Times James Baldwin turns a murder and its aftermath into an inquest in which even the most well intentioned whites are implicated and in which even a killer receives his share of compassion In a small Southern town a white man murders a black man then throws his body in the weeds With this act of violence James Baldwin launches an unsparing and at times agonizing probe of the wounds of race For where once a white storekeeper could have shot a boy like Richard Henry with impunity times have changed And centuries of brutality and fear patronage and contempt are about to erupt in a moment of truth as devastating as a shotgun blast

The Spectacle of Death Kristin Boudreau,2006-04-04 In 1787 Benjamin Rush cautioned that public punishments were dangerous to the social and legal authority of the new nation For Rush irrepressible human sentiments all but guaranteed that public punishments would turn spectators against the institutions responsible for the punishments Although public executions of criminals ended early in the 19th century debate over the morality of capital punishment has continued to this day In this unique and fascinating glimpse into public reactions to prominent executions from colonial times to the 1990s Kristin Boudreau focuses on the central role of populist often ephemeral literary forms in shaping attitudes toward capital punishment Surveying popular poems ballads plays and novels she shows that at key times of social unrest in American history many Americans have felt excluded by the political and legal processes and have turned instead to inexpensive literary forms of expression in an attempt to change the course of history Among the significant capital cases that the author discusses are the Haymarket anarchist trial of 1886 the lynching of Leo Frank in 1914 the murder of Emmett Till in 1955 and its effects on the Civil Rights movement Norman Mailer s treatment of the Gary Gilmore case in the 1979 novel The Executioner s Song and the 1998 execution of Karla Faye Tucker a convicted murderer who became a born again Christian on death row In the concluding chapter Boudreau examines contemporary writers musicians actors and other artists who are using their artistic media to influence official policies of states that permit capital punishment By examining these neglected texts Boudreau brings to light a compelling story about ordinary Americans fighting an entrenched legal system at times of great national crisis

Speculative Light Amy J. Elias,2024-12-13 Over the course of a thirty eight year friendship painter Beauford Delaney and writer James Baldwin shared their private lives and shaped one another s artistic values Speculative Light brings together scholars critics and artists who analyze the stylistic and historical import of Delaney s and Baldwin s works and examine how this friendship fundamentally shaped the pair s ideas about art and life The book s contributors explore how the two men sharing identities as queer Black American artists first in New York and then as expatriates in France created a speculative space in their work to think about more just and creative Black futures Essay topics and issues range from masculinity queerness Blackness and Americanness to the relationship between jazz painting and writing Throughout the contributors establish a positive history for Delaney s and Baldwin s arts that refuses a subordinate role to white artists of the modernist avant garde Ultimately Speculative Light demonstrates that Delaney and Baldwin s bond provides revolutionary grounds for theorizing contemporary Black art and life Contributors Hilton Als Nicholas Boggs Indie A Choudhury Shawn Anthony Christian Rachel Cohen Amy J Elias Monika Gehlawat David Leeming D Quentin Miller Fred Moten Walton M Muyumba Robert O Meally Ed Pavli Levi Prombaum Robert Reid Pharr Tyler T Schmidt Abbe Schriber Jered Sprecher Stephen Wicks Magdalena Zaborowska

James Baldwin William J. Maxwell,2017-06-06 Available in book form for the first time the FBI s secret dossier on the legendary and controversial writer Decades before Black Lives Matter returned James Baldwin to prominence J Edgar Hoover s FBI considered the Harlem born author the most powerful broker between black art and black power Baldwin s 1 884 page FBI file covering the period from 1958 to 1974 was the largest compiled on any African American artist of the Civil Rights era

This collection of once secret documents never before published in book form captures the FBI's anxious tracking of Baldwin's writings, phone conversations, and sexual habits, and Baldwin's defiant efforts to spy back at Hoover and his G-men. James Baldwin: The FBI File reproduces over one hundred original FBI records selected by the noted literary historian whose award-winning book F.B. Eyes: How J. Edgar Hoover's Ghostreaders Framed African American Literature brought renewed attention to bureau surveillance. William J. Maxwell also provides an introduction exploring Baldwin's enduring relevance in the time of Black Lives Matter, along with running commentaries that orient the reader and offer historical context, making this book a revealing look at a crucial slice of the American past and present.

Masterplots II.: A-Dre Tyrone Williams, 2009. Williams, Xavier U. presents 367 three to four page essays, 101 commissioned new for this edition on significant African American works of literature from Afrocentricity: The Theory of Social Change, a work of cultural criticism by Molefi K. Asante; Zami: A New Spelling of My Name, the biomythography of Audre Lorde. The works covered range from early colonial era writings through works of the beginning of the 21st century. Most of the essays address a single long work, while others review an author's work in a certain genre, such as short fiction, poetry, essays, or speeches. Each entry begins with information on title, subtitle, author's name, and birth/death dates, type of work, date of first publication, and production. For fiction, information is also presented on type of plot, setting, and principal characters. The essays then describe events or contents of the work and address broad themes and meanings connected to the work. Essays on fiction works include discussion of main character or characters, while nonfiction work includes sections on form and content and analysis. All essays end with discussion of critical context. Also included with the essays are annotated bibliographies on secondary sources. The final volume includes indexes organized by type of work, title, and authors. Examples of works covered in addition to the two already mentioned include Ain't I a Woman? by bell hooks; The Autobiography of Malcolm X; Babel 17 by Samuel R. Delany; The Black Muslims in America by C. Eric Lincoln; The Content of Our Character by Shelby Steele; Kindred by Octavia E. Butler; Roots by Alex Haley; The Signifying Monkey by Henry Louis Gates; Up from Slavery by Booker T. Washington; and Walkin' the Dog by Walter Mosley.
