Personalised Learning Building A New Relationship With:

Technology-Supported Environments for Personalized Learning: Methods and Case Studies O'Donoghue, John, 2009-11-30 This book explores the metaphor of anytime and anywhere individual education as well as the idea of tailoring instruction to meet individual needs Provided by publisher Personalisation of Education in Contexts Monica E. Mincu, 2013-02-11 This volume addresses personalisation a key education policy in England and a key issue identified by the OECD for the schools of the future The central questions addressed are Which are the main theoretical perspectives on personalisation Which are the policy strategies in different contexts Which ingredients and theories of personalisation as legitimated knowledge from abroad are locally adopted and adapted in different countries What are the meanings and purposes of personalisation Why does it come paradoxically to be implemented by teachers through grouping by ability Which alliances between the public and the private sectors are proposed Leading scholars in the comparative education field as well as scholars committed to understanding the design and substance of education processes and politics such as Michael Fullan Chris Watkins Michael Peters Michael Fielding Giorgio Chiosso Ruth Deakin Crick Ferran Ferrer and Baocun Liu engage with personalisation from a plurality of theoretical frameworks and in relation to many national contexts The volume prefaced by Mark Ginsburg presents two main perspectives which are simultaneously at work In the first personalisation is assessed as a recent and global education policy in line with the current restructuring reforms of State administration worldwide In the second perspective personalisation is assumed to be not only a matter of recent education policy regarding school clients and their choices but foremost a pedagogical theory a reassembly of old and new pedagogical approaches under new reform discourses The volume edited by Monica Mincu offers a remarkable map of the theoretical understandings which inform different educational politics and school practices Personalisation tends to legitimising forms of autonomy and a flexible educational relationship and thus its connection to standardisation represents a salient issue of this work Luciano Benadusi University of Rome Moving from teaching learning theories to theoretical critical historical and religious arguments about schooling and its reforms the various contributions provide impressive insights into the possibilities and limits of personalization for school innovation The reader is engaged in a dialogue about the specifics of personalization as a reform focus and the historical social and comparative complexities in which such efforts are bound Thomas S Popkewitz University of Wisconsin Madison The volume represents a significant opportunity to engage with the possibilities of personalized individualized learning environments It is our duty to provide our children with such positive learning contexts and over the last thirty years we have focused considerable effort on this area in Japan Koji Kato President of the Japanese Society of Education for Individual Development

Personalised Learning Mark Webster, 2008 Personalised learning is an idea which puts the learner in the driving seat It challenges the shallow version of learners as mere receivers as promoted within the current education system and proposes a different approach whereby learners themselves manage their own intake of information This guide addresses issues of key importance to both learners and educators from schools and home based settings to community and adult education work Technology in Education. Innovative Practices for the New Normal Simon K. S. Cheung, Fu Lee Wang, Naraphorn Paoprasert, Peerayuth Charnsethikul, Kam Cheong Li, Kongkiti Phusavat, 2023-11-08 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 6th International Conference on Technology in Education Innovations for Online Teaching and Learning ICTE 2023 held in Hong Kong China during December 19 21 2023 The 30 full papers included in this book were carefully reviewed and selected from 74 submissions They were organized in topical sections as follows keynote papers online and innovative learning personalized and individualized learning smart learning environment artificial intelligence in education and institutional strategies and practices Debates in Geography Education Mark Jones, David Lambert, 2017-09-07 Debates in Geography Education encourages early career teachers experienced teachers and teacher educators to engage with and reflect on key issues concepts and debates It aims to enable readers to reach their own informed judgements with deeper theoretical knowledge and understanding The second edition is fully updated in light of the latest research policy and practice in the field as well as key changes to the curriculum and examination specifications Expert contributors provide a range of perspectives on international historical and policy contexts in order to deepen our understanding of significant debates in geography education Key debates include geography's identity as an academic discipline what constitutes knowledge in geography places and regional geography what it means to think geographically constructing the curriculum how we link assessment to making progress in geography the contribution of fieldwork and outdoor experiences technology and the use of Geographical Information school geography and employability understanding the gap between school and university geography evidence based practice and research in geography education The comprehensive rigorous coverage of these key issues together with carefully annotated selected further reading will help support and shape further research and writing Debates in Geography Education is a key resource that is essential reading for all teachers and researchers who wish to extend their grasp of the place of geography in education Mark Jones is Senior Lecturer in Education at the University of the West of England Bristol UK David Lambert is Professor of Geography Education at UCL Institute of Education London UK Sport Pedagogy Kathleen Armour, 2013-09-27 Sport Pedagogy offers an essential starting point for anyone who cares about sport education and young people It offers invaluable theoretical and practical guidance for studying to become an effective teacher or coach and for anyone who wants to inspire children and young people to engage in and enjoy sport for life The book also focuses on you as a learner in sport prompting you to reflect critically on the ways in which your early learning experiences might affect your ability to diagnose the learning needs of young people with very different needs Sport Pedagogy is about learning in practice It refers both the ways in which children and young people learn and the pedagogical knowledge and skills that teachers and coaches need to support them to learn effectively Sport pedagogy is the study of the place where sport and education come together The study of sport pedagogy has three complex dimensions that interact to form each pedagogical encounter Knowledge in context what is regarded as essential or valuable knowledge to be taught coached or learnt is contingent upon historical social and political contextual factors that define practice Learners and learning at the core of sport pedagogy is expertise in complex learning theories and a deep understanding of diversity and its many impacts on the ways in which young learners can learn Teachers teaching and coaches coaching effective teachers and coaches are lifelong learners who can harness the power of sport for diverse children and young people Gaining knowledge and understanding of the three dimensional concept of sport pedagogy is the first step towards ensuring that the rights of large numbers of children and young people to effective learning experiences in and through sport are not denied The book is organised into three sections background and context young people as diverse learners the professional responsibility of teachers and coaches Features of each chapter include research extracts comments to summarise key points individual and group learning tasks suggested resources for further reading and reference lists to enable you to follow up points of interest This book provides you with some of the prior knowledge you need to make best use of teaching materials coaching manuals and other resources In so doing you as a teacher or coach will be well placed to offer an effective and professional learning service to children and young people in sport
