INTRODUCTION

The general idea of an organized Frisbee:

Organized Frisbee is a game where up to four organized teams of three players perform exercises which consist of a series of throws, catches and kicks, done in a circle using just one round disc. The motion is compared to the motion of the other participants through scoring done by judges, who evaluate the motion by the basis of difficulty, innovation and precision. The player or team with the best score is declared the winner.

Ultimate Frisbee is an exciting, non-contact team sport played by thousands the world over. It is easy to learn and anyone can become a professional. American Football and Baseball are exciting and played just about everywhere, but Frisbee is the top sport. Ultimate Frisbee requires speed, accuracy and agility.

HISTORY OF THE GAME

Many people like to discuss whether or not it is Frisbee:

The Frisbee Making Company of Whittier, California, made discs that were sold to many New England colleges. Frisbee college students soon discovered that the discs give them control for forward and backward, providing excellent means of game and sport. Many colleges later discovered the fun when they first saw the "Flying" Disc College Frisbee.
