

Ode To Autumn

Season of mists and mellow fruitfulness,
Close bosom-friend of the maturing sun;
Conspiring with him how to load and bless
With fruit the vines that round the thatch-eaves run;
To bend with apples the mossed cottage-trees,
And fill all fruit with ripeness to the core;
To swell the gourd, and plump the hazel shells
With a sweet kernel; to set budding more,
And still more, later flowers for the bees,

Until they think warm days will never cease,
For Summer has o'er-brimmed their clammy cell.

Who hath not seen thee oft amid thy store?
Sometimes whoever seeks abroad may find
Thee sitting careless on a granary floor,
Thy hair soft-lifted by the winnowing wind;
Or on a half-reaped furrow sound asleep,
Drowsed with the fume of poppies, while thy hook
Spares the next swath and all its twined flowers;
And sometimes like a gleaner thou dost keep
Steady thy laden head across a brook;
Or by a cider-press, with patient look,
Thou watchest the last oozings, hours by hours.

Where are the songs of Spring? Ay, where are they?
Think not of them, thou hast thy music too,—
While barred clouds bloom the soft-dying day,
And touch the stubble-plains with rosy hue;
Then in a wailful choir, the small gnats mourn
Among the river sallows, borne aloft
Or sinking as the light wind lives or dies;
And full-grown lambs loud bleat from hilly bourn;
Hedge-cricket sing; and now with treble soft
The redbreast whistles from a garden-croft,

And gathering swallows twitter in the skies.

John Keats: Ode to Autumn , As part of the Literature Network Chris Beasley presents the full text of the poem entitled Ode to Autumn This poem was written by the English poet John Keats 1795 1821 The Selected Poetry & Prose of Shelley Percy Bysshe Shelley,1994 This edition contains all Shelley s poetry from his juvenilia to his great works such as The Revolt of Islam and Ode to the West Wind and his only completed verse drama The Cenci a melodramatic Venetian tale of incest murder and revenge Romantic Poetry Karl Kroeber, Gene W. Ruoff,1993 This anthology fills the need for a comprehensive up to date collection of the most important contemporary writings on the English romantic poets During the 1980s many theoretical innovations in literary study swept academic criticism Many of these approaches from deconstructive new historicist and feminist perspectives used romantic texts as primary examples and altered radically the ways in which we read Other major changes have occurred in textual studies dramatically transforming the works of these poets The world of English romantic poetry has certainly changed and Romantic Poetry keeps pace with those changes Karl Kroeber and Gene W Ruoff have organized the book by poet Blake Wordsworth Coleridge Byron Shelly and Keats and have included essays representative of key critical approaches to each poet s work In addition to their excellent general introduction the editors have provided brief helpful forewords to each essay showing how it reflects current approaches to its subject The book also has an extensive bibliography sure to serve as an important research aid Students on all levels will find this book invaluable

To Autumn John Keats,1985 Imagination, Metaphor and Mythopeia in Wordsworth, Shelley and Keats Firat Karadas,2008 The book studies metaphor myth and their imaginative aspects in the poetry of William Wordsworth Percy Bysshe Shelley and John Keats Relying on Kantian Romantic Neo Kantian and modern ideas of imagination metaphor and myth the book proposes that imagination is an inherently metaphorizing and mythologizing faculty because the act of perception is an act of giving form to natural phenomena and seeing similitude in dissimilitude which are basically metaphorical and mythological acts Studying selected poems the author explores how in its form giving activity the imagination of the speaking subject mythologizes and metaphorizes by seeing objects of nature as spiritual animate or divine beings and thus transforming them into the alien territory of myth Myth and metaphor are analyzed in these poems mainly in two regards first myth and metaphor are handled as inborn aspects of imagination and perception and the interaction between nature and imagination is presented as the origin of all mythology second to show how myth is re created time and again by poetic imagination Romantic mythography and re creation of precursor mythologies are analyzed The Ode "To Autumn." B.
