

Doing Business in the Philippines

The Philippines is the gateway to the vast Southeastern markets of the ASEAN region. Unlike any other Asian country, the Philippines has an excellent record in attracting foreign direct investment in the Philippines. Many investors continue to explore the Philippines for growth opportunities and resources, a developing infrastructure for regional growth, a sophisticated business environment and access to a vast

The Philippine economy withstood the recent global economic downturn better than any other ASEAN country. Apart from being severely affected by international economic, the Philippines enjoys frequent domestic consumption, low dependence on exports and large amounts of remittances flowing into the country from the millions of Filipinos working abroad. With a stable banking system, a well performing stock market, a consistently expanding business contracting industry and record high levels of international reserves, the prospects for the Philippine economy remain positive. Furthermore, the Asian Development Bank (ADB), which offers a broad range of business opportunities in the region is located in Manila. These indicators, in combination with a literacy rate of 96.7% in English, being taught in all schools provides many business opportunities for Dutch entrepreneurs. There is particularly need for the sectors mentioned below.

Priority sectors

Transport & Infrastructure

While challenges remain in the area of public infrastructure, the increased public spending on infrastructure has led to new seaport investments through better roads and more flights.

The next few years will see additional investments from the government and increasing private investments in the Philippine transport sector. The program is also developing air ports facilities to be an infrastructure gateway to being an emerging region with domestic and international routes. Due to the growing importance in transport and logistics, business opportunities for Dutch companies can be explored for airport and port development, bus facilities and inland express facilities for sea-food, horticulture and forestry products (e.g. cold storage, freezing, post-harvest storage facilities).

Maritime

The Netherlands and the Philippines have strong and long-standing bilateral political and economic cooperation in the maritime sector. The program is the "blueing capital of the world" and is the primary source of seafarers for the Dutch fleet. The country's strategic waterways is a strategic hub for ports, shipping and maritime facilities within the Asia-Pacific region. Given the substantial economic interests involved for the Dutch shipping sector, more and more Dutch shipping companies are seeking to expand their business presence in the Philippines instead of just partnering with local incumbent agencies. Similarly, both governments strongly need the need committee on Maritime Affairs (COMA), a high-level bilateral meeting to strengthen maritime cooperation.

Handbook on Water Security Claudia Pahl-Wostl, Anik Bhaduri, Joyeeta Gupta, 2016-01-29 Water security has received increasing attention in the scientific and public policy communities in recent years The Handbook on Water Security is a much needed resource that helps the reader navigate between the differing interpretations of water security It explains the various dimensions of the topic by approaching it both conceptually and thematically as well as in relation to experiences in different regions of the world The international contributors explore the various perspectives on water security to show that it has multiple meanings that cannot easily be reconciled Topics discussed include challenges from human security to consumerism how trade policies can help to achieve water security in a transboundary setting the potential of risk based governance arrangements and the ecology of water security Scholars and postgraduate students in the social sciences working on water related issues will find this book to be of substantial interest It will strongly appeal to policymakers and practitioners looking at the strengths and limitations of water security

Southeast Asian Personalities of Chinese Descent Leo Suryadinata, 2012 This is a bold project recording the lives of a particular group of Southeast Asians Most of the people whose biographies are included here have settled down in the ten countries that constitute the region Each of them has either self identified as Chinese or is comfortable to be known as someone of Chinese ancestry There are also those who were born in China or elsewhere who came here to work and do business including seeking help from others who have ethnic Chinese connections With the political and economic conditions of the region in a great state of flux for the past two centuries it is impossible to find consistency in the naming process Confucius had stressed that correct names make for the best relationships In this case Professor Leo Suryadinata has been pursuing for decades the elusive goal of finding the right name to give to the large numbers of people who have in one way or another made their homes in or made some difference to Southeast Asia I believe that when he and his colleagues selected the biographies to be included here they have taken a big step towards the rectification of identities for many leading personalities In so doing he has done us all a great service Professor Wang Gungwu National University of Singapore
